If you could live 5 Amazing Years, or 75 Shity Years, what would you pick?

I would pick 5 Amazing years, rather than 75 shitty ones.

Definitely 5 amazing years. Enjoy life while you can.

I would probably still make the shitty 75 years into 75 good years, so tough choice.

add life to your days not days to your life

You Cease to exist.

5 Amazing years, living 75 shitty years (including that you wouldn't be able to change them) is not worth life. Life is here to live, and doing what you make out of it, as long as it keeps you happy. Living 75 shitty years is just living life without a meaning in which death would just be the same but you wouldn't be here to notice it.

This is actually a really hard question for me. I guess I'd choose 5 amazing years. But they'd have to be really, really fucking amazing.

How shitty? Like life in prison from the time you're 20 years old to 75 years old?

yeah the 5 amazing years sounds good.

You wouldn't be able to enjoy the amazing years because you would know you were going to die after five of them.
