Thread: What can we do to get OMC back on the map?

Who Soup - October 24, 2015, 4:51 pm

A few years ago I saw some amazing potential in OMC and crypto currency mining; so much that I even purchased a pretty good mining rig for it's time.

I mined quite a bit of OMC in a good amount of time and made enough to keep the operation profitable. Selling my OMC wasn't a problem as people seemed to want it even though there was no OMC award or 3p1c group at the time.

Now, I fell that burst mining destroyed OMC bringing the difficulty so high that small miners can't make a profit off of it which is why almost no one mines any more. With that being said though, I understand that quantity doesn't necessarily bring up the price, as it has to have the faith of people to keep the demand up as well. I feel as if people lost hope with OMC and the market has become stagnant. People often don't care to go through the "extra step" of exchanging their BTC to OMC to PP. I feel as if people don't use it because one of the main reasons BTC is so popular is because it is widely accepted, fluctuates at a good price so people want to day trade with it, and arguably the most important point that it's anonymous. I feel as if OMC doesn't meet any of those points.

So where can we go from here? How can we re stimulate the market? I know some have suggested to switch the algorithm to something that can be CPU mined, and others including my self have suggested creating a physical omnicoin but I don't think it would be profitable. I believe for any change to happen it will take both the community to trust OMC again as a solid currency as well as the developers to stop burst mining as well as bringing back down the difficulty for it to become stable again.

I don't use OMC, i only got it for the upgrade and award, but i do agree with the last sentence. I feel like the only way to get it going is to make more uses for it. Something like epic or the omnicoin award. I feel like a lot more people will use it then.

Users are going to have to adopt the coin and make products/services.

I think what I said about "day trading" with the coin is also a sure way for people to adopt the coin, because people will buy and sell a lot at once.

420 Blaze It - October 24, 2015, 5:10 pm

Instead of adding a reward, we need actually people to sell OMC only products.

The next product I release I'll probably only take OMC just to help the cause.

Have a integrated wallet on HF.

Seriously 3p1c

The reason why people don't want to though is because they don't want to go through the extra steps of exchanging it for btc then from btc to pp.

I personally just don't like using the official exchanging sites I rather just exchange it with someone from HF and I feel as if a lot of people would agree with me.

Another OMC award maybe, say you needed for example 500k or 1m OMC to get the award. There could only ever be a maximum of 13 or 26 people with the award. This would definitely increase volume and the value of the coin plus take a lot of the supply off the market. You could sell your coins although you'd lose the award. Pretty lame idea but it's all I've got for now, if anyone wants to add onto this go ahead.

Well my suggestion never said anything about the OMC going to Omni. You'd get the award if you had X amount of OMC on the addresses signed to your HF profile.

Oh, just to encourage holding? I thought you meant it was purchasable. Sorry, my mistake.

Seasonal - October 24, 2015, 6:40 pm

I personally have been telling people they can pay me with OMC but no one seems to ever have it honestly.

So making "only OMC" product.. dont know how well that will work

All good, I could have worded my first post better.

It'd encourage holding for those who wanted the award, could increase the amount of miners since there would likely be a higher demand and value of OMC.. Meh the thought only just popped in my mind before. I'm sure it has flaws and ways it could be improved, was just a starting idea.

Abraham Lincoln - October 24, 2015, 11:45 pm

There's no way within reason we can get the demand we need. No one (except Omni) is willing to take a risk of basically guaranteed loss for OMC.

All I think we can do is try to get large burst mining pools to stop mining. That would help stop all the low selling.

w?rloct - October 26, 2015, 10:38 am

I'd really like to see OMC being "big" again, like the hype was before and shortly after the release, also some new pools and a fair difficulty for non-professional miners to get the attention back to OMC, as everyone could mine and hold OMC even without a professional mining-rig.

Who Soup - October 26, 2015, 1:03 pm

Because of all of the great ideas and inspiration on here I decided to open up a cloud server service and only accept OMC <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5032009>

b?xxy - October 26, 2015, 1:05 pm

Well, there's no incentive to use or buy/mine them if no one accepts them as money.

FRANKIE - October 26, 2015, 1:11 pm

All of my products are able to be bought with OMC, it's not much but I always leave that window open

Cameron - October 27, 2015, 12:19 am

Omni still has some big plans for OMC that'll hopefully get us back on the map.

Quote:OMC integration has begun on accounts. Currently a functioning plugin is running as a beta test which will add your OMC address to your profile and confirm it as yours.

<https://hackforums.net/coins.php>

More functions are coming including a very huge OMC plugin which will be integrated and become a huge part the of HF Marketplace. I will be creating a different thread on it because it will be a much widely discussed topic. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4968001> if you make a product that's OMC only add it to my list!

Roger Waters - October 29, 2015, 8:55 am

I wish we could still upgrade to 3p1c with OMC, that created a demand for the OMC and now there's literally nothing on here besides the award. Even with the profile implementation of OMC, not many people are making the effort to get their name up on that list.

I am sure he will open it back up to OMC in due time, but he is probably focused on the server upgrades at the moment, not OMC.

b?xxy - October 29, 2015, 2:37 pm

Kidnap someone and demand $70 million of OMC

Krew - October 29, 2015, 2:38 pm

Nothing. OMC is dead. Face it.

I have been a proud supporter of OMC and it did have potential, but it was never taken to it's full potential.

NoMercy - October 29, 2015, 6:41 pm

We should add something that shows how much OMC one member has on their profile. There is so many people trying to improve their epenis that a lot of people would want OMC just to make them selves look good. We are a forum full of young teenagers and they would probably think they are cool for having a ton of OMC on their profiles.

Besides that we also need to go beyond HF. Right now the coins have no real use outside of HF. Have you got any ideas to do that or are you just saying that is what we need to do. it's hard to do something like that unless we talk to other forums and ask if they want to adopt the coin.

Right now BTC has much more value because you can use it at so many places. If you try to pay with OMC outside of HF people wouldn't even know it and it would just look like other alt coins to them.

Getting other forums involved would be cool, but we don't have any other "sales point" then to help the coin in general.

Heard of omcpay the first time right now and it seems a pretty good idea! More people should include it in their websites where they sell their products, I think that would help OMC a lot.

NiktoKan - October 31, 2015, 6:49 pm

Create promotional materials like eBook & Youtube video. The key to attract more people come to OMC is let them know how to make money with OMC, it can be mining, trading, investing, arbitrage etc. There are many members will leak around the eBook.

That's the problem: there aren't any ways to make money with OMC. No matter what you do you will lose money.

If we raise the profile with in HF we could boost popularity and make start moving it to different forums. I don't know what our pitch would be to other forums though to get them to adopt the currency. What would motivate them would be, if we give you 1 million OMC will you adopt our coin and make it more popular. Thus meaning the more popular they make it and the more they boost the worth of the coin, it is profiting them because that 1 million they have would be worth more.

I'm actually thinking of a pretty good way to get omnicoins some population.

I don't have any time until saturday, when I will have a closer look if it's even possible to do it. I haven't seen it done with OMC before (it was done with BTC tho, but as far as I know, just one small failed experiment). I'm not going into details until I'll take a closer look at it. You can still with me and OMC some luck.

If I'll be able to do it, I think it'll bump up to at least 3 times it's current price.

Let's hope. ?
