Thread: Site Maintenance Today \(NOW\)

Omniscient - October 26, 2015, 12:32 pm

I plan on doing some extra server work today. We might go down a few times for 10-30 minutes at a time. I know this isn't much notice but I have to do work like this when I can.

When it's completed I will post about the changes.

Thanks everyone.

Did something go wrong with the additional hardware? Or has the load increased?

In about 5-10 minutes the site will be offline again.

DaPiranha - October 26, 2015, 12:42 pm

Cheers, didn't last to long site seems to be back to normal in terms of speed. Thanks :)

Omniscient - October 26, 2015, 12:44 pm

I'm doing an upgrade and beforehand I'm doing a full backup. Depending on how long this backup takes to gzip will determine the time remaining before I take us offline.

The next phase of my work will require HF to Deny all traffic. Site will be 100% offline.

If all goes well we will only be offline for 10-20 minutes. Any complications and that could extend to 1-2 hours as I may need to revert to the backup.

Thanks for keeping the forms running smoothly, I know it isn't easy from personal experience

Or rather it's really easy until something goes wrong or needs to be upgraded, then it's quite a bit more complicated

Let's hope there won't be any problems, good luck.

Eyy, your backing up the site so whatever we do now won't save #Purge

Sure you can go "purge" if you want to get banned once it comes back online. ?

Glad to know what's going on, thanks for the info Omni.

Omniscient - October 26, 2015, 1:00 pm

Right now I'm doing just one thing. If it goes well though I may begin work on an additional upgrade. The 2nd one I have planned will be adjustments to Nginx and I'll be adding a custom module to prevent DDOS attacks. That shouldn't require a lot of downtime though.

MrOrang - October 26, 2015, 1:03 pm

HF load times are really fast today :D Is this due to the new server?

Fellow83 - October 26, 2015, 1:04 pm

^^ Thanks for the heads up Omni - looking forward to the results :)

NullRootix - October 26, 2015, 1:44 pm
