Thread: Started My New Job Today

Finally got out of the stagnant workplace i was in, and took an amazing oportunity to head a new department at a large firm, with a much more promising future. 20% pay bump, new office is like 3 miles from my house, and going from doing the job of an entire small company myself, to now leading/building a team of 15-20. I know most of you probably don't give a shit, but I'm happy so I figured I'd share. ?

Yeah me too haha. Can't lie, pretty nervous about the huge jump in responsibility, but I've got good people around me so I'm hopeful. ?

That's great man. Although the pay isn't great, and I could never support myself alone off what I make, I'm pretty excited that at the end of next month I'll be able to make a bragging post about holding the same job for a year. ?

It really is. I have friends complaining all the time about how hard it is to hold a job, and I'm just happy to be able to say I'm employed. Good job, and good luck with your new one.
