Age : 18 - I don't act like a retard, Red can vouch.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them : Call of Duty AW - Daily, Halo 5 - daily, GTA V - Daily, NBA 2k16 - Once every few days.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what : I used to snipe and play competitively on the 360. I played MW2/3 and Bo2 competitively.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis : As much as you may need. The only thing is - I work Thursday & Friday until 7 and Saturday until 4.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : More people to play with and helpful tips for games.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : A fun personality and helpful tips.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs? : Yessir.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants? : Ive gamed for as long as I could remember, and frankly, I'm good at it.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them : Destiny, Fifa 16, Forza 6, Sunset Overdrive, The Walking Dead, Tomb Raider. I mainly play Fifa 16 and Destiny, maybe 2-4 hours per day each.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what : Yes, I played Fifa 12-15 competitively but stopped half way through the 15 season as it became too much with University.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis : Nights are no issue to me, the latest I finish University is 6pm and that's one day.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : Nothing really, other than for others to show the same amount of respect towards me and have the same passion for gaming.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : Knowledge, Ability, Joy and Laughter. I'm someone who enjoys having a laugh but at the same time making sure I win.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs? : Yes, I have an Elgato HD Capture Card and Razer Siren microphone. (I'm sponsored by Razer)

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants? : I'm beautiful, I'm fun to be around, I'm hardworking, I'm dedicated and I'm passionate. If you want to know more, then find out, invite me to a game of something and we will have some fun :)

What games do you play, and how often do you play them : GTA Online - daily, BF4 - daily, COD AW - once and a while, Rocket League - once and a while

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what : No never really played competitive but maybe in the near future I would like to.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis : I'm open from 4pm PST to 12pm PST on M-F. Sat to Sun normally all day. You could also send me a message on PSN and I will get it on my phone if you need me.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : A group of people who are also PlayStation gamers and who would love to play some GTA heist with me. Would be a great opportunity before I ship to the Air Force.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : A down to earth personality without drama. And of course the Air Force core values integrity first, service before self, and Excellence in all we do.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs? : At most I can use the PlayStation 4 built in recording and can't really do voice overs.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants? : Not going to give a sob story nor try to place myself over others but I can give you a guarantee I will be the last to die on a GTA heist. You can say I am quite the dependable player and expert when it comes to staying alive.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them: I play a lot of sports games along with Call of Duty (Black Ops 3 HYPE), Destiny, and Fallout. I play them on a daily basis.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what: Competitive? I'm not sure what your definition of competitive is compared to mine. I have played in tournaments in the past, but just with groups of friends playing against each other and there was no cash involved. It wasn't a large-scale tournament either. We played Search and Destroy on Black Ops 2 with 5 teams of 4. We had preliminary games to determine your seeding in the tournament bracket, etc etc.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis: When I'm not doing anything for school or w/e I am usually online gaming. That being said, I could definitely devote at least 5 hours a day on a weeknight, and 10 hours a day on a weekend. I'm prepared to play on every gaming night you throw at me. I never turn down a good challenge.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector: Well, I have learned to not use the word "expect". Instead, I like to say I "hope". What I hope to get from the PS4 Gaming Sector is an awesome group of people of whom love to play games against each other. I know multiple people in Brotherhood and I like every single one of them, so I am sure this wouldn't be a problem at all. A weekly gaming night would be awesome to be honest. I haven't been a part of one of those for quite a while.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector: Well, I can definitely bring a positive attitude and a good gaming experience. I am an extreme follower in the phrase "You scratch my back, I'll scratch yours." meaning, if you are nice to me, I will most definitely be nice to you. If we ever split up into teams for gaming nights, generally the teams need synergy within the group, and I don't have problems with working well with anyone. Gaming is a passion of mine, and has been ever since I was little and got a PS1 and played Spyro and Crash Bandicoot, then kept moving up through the years to where I am now, and I currently own an Xbox One and a PS4.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs?: The PS4 has a built-in PVR function so I am sure that wouldn't be a problem. As far as voice overs, I'm not entirely sure as to how they work however I can definitely find out and try.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants?: These questions are always extremely hard to answer because I have to try to say why I'm better than everyone else without putting anyone down or sounding cocky. I'm most definitely not a userbar whore. I couldn't care less about the userbar. Granted, it is extremely nice, however I'm not in it for the userbar, I'm in it for the social interactions in the group. I would love to play competitive games in Brotherhood and have tons of fun doing it. As I eluded to earlier, gaming is a passion of mine. I know that probably sounds cliché, however it's not. I love gaming. I'm willing to dump hours on end of my life to play. On another note, I'm very active within the subforums as well. I post a lot in them and am willing to contribute a ton to keep it active.

--Thanks for reading my application. As I know that soon there will be a ton of applications flooding this thread and only a couple people being accepted, the average odds for a person to being accepted it probably extremely slim. however I would still like to thank you for reading my application and I hope you get a ton more good applications.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them: All CoDs - Been playing League Play on BO2 recently to get ready for BO3.

Resident Evil - I love survival horror games so I usually end up playing these a lot.

Final Fantasy - Rarely, maybe when I'm bored.

GTA V - When my friends bug me to play.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what: I played UMG for Ghosts and AW and I also played on a MLG team for Tom Clancy's RSV2 when that was still on the circuit ages ago.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights, assignments and whatnot else might be required of you on a weekly basis: As much as needed. I am in college so unexpected things do come up.

What do you expect of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector: Some people that are at least half way decent at CoD.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector: I'm an extremely active member and play Xbox pretty much everyday. If you're looking to ever compete competitively at a game, I feel like I would be a good fit.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs?: I have before but not too often. I don't mind though.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants?: Roger's kicked me from BH Gaming like three times now.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what : I dont believe this should matter on this application.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis : I am normally on either late at night or during the day.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : I want a group of people to share a great gaming experience with me. Doesnt matter how well people play, it just matters that everybody is having a great time and ennoying the game together.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector : I have extensive xbox modding experience.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs? : I can stream over twitch and use voice as well.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them : I play a lot of FPS, mainly CoD and occasionally BF4. I'm also into third person games (They definitely seem to be on the rise, the majority of hyped upcoming games definitely are. (Uncharted, The Division, etc.)

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what : Not really, I did a little competitive stuff in BO1 days but not much since then.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis : Honestly, school isn't much of an issue for me, I will definitely be on daily, or at the very least every other day.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : Mostly just a chill hangout section for casual/mildly competitive gamers to meet and play together.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : If I'm accepted I plan on making some game opinion/thought threads with recommendations on whether to buy or not, as well as tutorials for difficult missions/levels/sequences on any puzzle type game.

Are you capable of recording gameplay and possibly doing voice overs? : Voice-overs are a yes, and if the PS4's built in recorder counts, then yes to recording as well :-)

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants? : I think that activity wouldn't be an issue at all as I enjoy gaming and do it daily, and I think other members would definitely benefit from my threads on new games as well as tutorials. This would be the first ever group I've been in, and honestly it's perfect for me as a gamer. I fit all your criteria (to my knowledge) and I'd be ever so grateful if you'd allow me to join and give me a chance to share my knowledge, experiences, and thoughts with fellow Brotherhood members. ? ?

What games do you play, and how often do you play them:

I play GTA V, COD MW3/AW/BO2/BO3, Watch Dogs, Minecraft rarely... CSGO.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what:

Back in MW3, I was big into the Elite side of things, had my group and went weekly in competitions for double XP and things.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and whatever might be required of you on a weekly basis:

More then 6 hours on weekdays, more then 12+ hours weekends. No life. =)

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector:

I expect nothing, however I expect myself to improve Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector dramatically, by being active at all times and make myself an acceptable role model for the group, showing off what we are all about.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector:

My time and great dedication, my willingness to co-operate along with my leadership skills as a role model. I'll be here to guide others if need be and I'll be here accepting help, if I need any. Simply put, my best effort.

Are you capable of recording game-play and possibly doing voice overs?:

Of course, I have an excellent computer along with a professional studio condenser microphone, I even have my own Youtube channel where I like to play games and upload if I'm bored, and I'm more than confident in doing anything involving being on camera and with my voice.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants?:

I am extremely unique, as I am putting full heart and soul dedication into this group, I promise you nothing but the best from me.

I am a nice, loving and kind guy who loves to have fun with friends and most importantly play games and eat food. =D -- Simply put, you won't regret it.

Thanks for reading, and goodluck to all!

How does the processing thing work? Like just out of curiosity and stuff how long does it typically take for you to find out if you're in?

We interrogate you as if you've been convicted of a very serious crime.

Jon Snow. - November 3, 2015, 10:32 am

Can I ask when this will be open until?

It's the first thing that I've seen on HF in a long time that actually looks interesting. Haven't been part of a group in a while, and would definitely like to get back in to a squaaaaad.

Also, I'm in the process of selling my XBOX ONE to buy a PS4, that's why I am asking.
