Thread: Youtube Video Award

Omniscient - October 31, 2015, 3:36 pm

I think I'm going to start a new Youtube Video Award thingy.

Here was original thread from just about 5 years ago:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=719856>

So I think it would be cool to do another round of awards to hand out to members who make videos for HF. Curious what members thought of this idea?

There will of course be some requirements to the video as far as links, mentions, public only, and time length. That will be discussed when I officially begin the Award granting.

The only thing I'm not sure about is if I should make this some sort of contest or just let people earn the award. Thoughts?

Larsenpower - October 31, 2015, 3:36 pm

Seems like a really nice idea!

Niccolò Machiavelli - October 31, 2015, 3:37 pm

This would be really fun, I'm excited!

FRANKIE - October 31, 2015, 3:37 pm

I would participate, definitely hyped if you decide to do it

nique ta mere - October 31, 2015, 3:37 pm

well, I have always wanted a second award :^)

i a m g o n e - October 31, 2015, 3:38 pm

I think it should be a contest, because its not hard to get some random screenrecorder and make 1 video on hf, or the same video on hf but different variants

The video would have to be unique

brian188246 - October 31, 2015, 3:38 pm

If it's the same award, I would say just hand it out. However, if you're going to make a new one a contest would be pretty cool.

ha4x0r - October 31, 2015, 3:38 pm

Just let em all in, I need that pixel

CRT - October 31, 2015, 3:38 pm

I'm sure the award whores will love it.

Ninetales. - October 31, 2015, 3:38 pm

I was gonna make a thread about the current award missing from the server files, but it seems you've cleared this up.

-?MW- - October 31, 2015, 3:39 pm

I've always wanted another award so yes pls do this :D

Fish - October 31, 2015, 3:39 pm

I think everyone should be able to make a video. Let everyone earn the award!

Projec7 - October 31, 2015, 3:39 pm

Handing it out is nice. But we should do at least 2 things for it. I'll say let members decide on what they feel comfortable about.

Grammar Rays - October 31, 2015, 3:39 pm

Let people earn the award, IMO.

Maybe delegate the award giving process to someone so you haven't got to do it though.

Hydra - October 31, 2015, 3:41 pm

I think it should be a contest. Round up a bunch of submissions and allow the community to vote for the best one and then you can put in your final "vote" as well. I think the top 5 should get the award, maybe 10? It is pretty limited so you'll be getting a lot of submissions.

Kill?Muvz - October 31, 2015, 3:41 pm

I think give it to everyone that meets the criteria, more people will do it that way! Buzzing for this!

Velocity™ - October 31, 2015, 3:41 pm

I don't think it should be a contest. But at the same time, not an easy award to be handed out.

Guidelines Ofc and people gotta know if they don't get reward don't cry over it.

Hash G. - October 31, 2015, 3:44 pm

Imho it should be a contest or with higher requirements.

The requirements for the previous edition of this award are just too easy to meet.

Omniscient - October 31, 2015, 3:46 pm

Quote:I think it should be a contest, because its not hard to get some random screenrecorder and make 1 video on hf, or the same video on hf but different variants

But the point is promotion. So I'm not against videos that aren't the highest quality.

Quote:I think everyone should be able to make a video. Let everyone earn the award!

My thoughts exactly.

But I do think having the top quality videos in some type of contest would be great too.

Gowther - October 31, 2015, 3:46 pm

would be awesome to see! :)

SwimmingPool - October 31, 2015, 3:48 pm

Just let us earn the award. I like that idea better.

SIM-1729678 - October 31, 2015, 3:49 pm

Make it a limited time thing where people get a chance to send in their video's. If you like them and they meet the requirements they get the award.

A contest can be so harsh..

Perhaps give the YouTube \(\) award to all of those who meet the criteria, and open up the Video Contest \(\) award to top YT videos. ?

The Video Contest award is pretty null now, 3 of the 4 members are closed, and the award is very much time specific and outdated right now. Opening it up and introducing it again with a new purpose would be a first in HF history really, and help recycle awards a little bit. Whatcha think?

Inmodwetrust - October 31, 2015, 3:50 pm

Yes, it gives a chance for the newbies and /or members that didn't partake in the last one to get it.

Walt Disney™ - October 31, 2015, 3:53 pm

I'll happily make a video for the award.

I personally think you and the rest of the staff should pick maybe 1/3 of the entires. Make it a bit more exclusive.

Velocity™ - October 31, 2015, 3:54 pm

Less people will do it if it's a contest.

If you are doing it promotions wise, do it handing out.

Although I don't have a clue how it works, I'd assume more information will be provided later.

I have to agree with this suggestion, it'd be good for anyone to get the basic award and reward those who went the extra mile in their video with an additional award.

I personally suggest a contest or at least more specific criteria than last time. You commented on mine saying it was one of the best, but it was still made from within my home. I think this time it should be something awesome done in a public location.

Also you could at least have a filter member to do it or a member that can look at the videos and narrow the decision down to a few amazing videos. Like back in the day when iBruteForce would help out with awards.

Delevingne - November 1, 2015, 3:26 am

It's good for HackForums if there are more video's on YouTube about it; sure. This would make it best to hand it to people that make videos.

But the other side it is better to make a contest thingy for it.

I think you should let people earn the award like you previously did, make the award a bit different to make the original hold it's meaning, like change award shade or something, maybe gold and have higher requirements. Then allow everyone to get the award, even those who have the previous one. I would be very interested if you were to do this.

If not, and you just want to reopen the old award signups, that would be cool too for those that didn't get the chance.

Gives people like me who don't have a lot of money to buy awards a chance to look fancy. ;P

Vouch for Vobe. He broke but likes shiny things

Hustla - November 1, 2015, 8:38 pm

Let everyone get the award just like people in the past got it.

Noisy - November 1, 2015, 8:39 pm

Why not do both? have another type of youtube award for the top 3 videos, so everyone can still get an award but the top 3 get a special one.

Devil Dog - November 1, 2015, 9:20 pm

So when is this whole thing going down?

AURUM - November 1, 2015, 9:23 pm

I am hyped. I think earn maybe? I say that because if it is a contest then I feel everyone wont get a fair chance.

This sounds like a good idea to me.

It shouldn't be too easy to earn of course, but not too hard either.

Maximum - November 2, 2015, 1:11 am

You should just let people earn the award. ?

?hance The Rapper - November 2, 2015, 1:59 am

I've been doing this, im making my 3rd vlog for hf tomorrow, i think this should be something that is earned so people are not all posting just because they want to win the contest

PurpleIsAColor - November 2, 2015, 2:46 am

I may just be thinking loud and stupid, but why don't do this.

Normal award for everybody.

Golden YouTube award for the top 5 or something?

Toscan - November 2, 2015, 2:50 am

This sounds very interesting and a great idea! I'd love to hear more on this. In my opinion it should be handed out based on the quality and the effort of the video. Something at least worth watching about HF at a quality level.

This is honestly a brilliant idea as well!

I can easily take the current award, and give it a golden touch.

Even an animation if you want(just a bit of sparkling).

All awards are in the .png format.

No animation then.

WarOnDrugs - November 2, 2015, 3:29 pm

I think giving a chance for all members to earn this award would be the best, I know I will certainly give it a good try. Cool idea bringing the Youtube award back, this is actually one of the few awards I would like.

Dood - November 2, 2015, 9:08 pm

It's been what, close to 3 years since the award was last given out? Just go for it, and make it easily obtainable. Awards should be for fun, not extremely exclusive to the point where 4 people have it, 3 got it through donating, and 2 are closed.

Juicy - November 2, 2015, 9:09 pm

Yes because I would love another award

Cyrus - November 2, 2015, 10:42 pm

I like the idea of it been some sort of contest.

Crocs - November 2, 2015, 10:44 pm

Last time you hosted these awards I made a video which I sent to you without receiving any award whatsoever, so I think it would be quite nice to give me a new chance.
