Hey guys!

I am using ewhoring to spread my stub. A guy didn't want to open my stub, so I send him a picture of a nice girl.

He liked it and asked how much cam or pics where.. I said $30 for 20 pics and $60 for 30 minutes cam ??

He was not sure about the deal.. so I told him that I liked him and asked "only" $75 instead of $90. He agreed and called me lovely hahaha anyway.. here's proof:

Conversation (part of)

I talked to him about 30-40 minutes.. I wanted to send him my stub, but with $75 more to spend I'm a happy man.

This isn't only for Bragging but also to show "noobs" like me (yes I'm a noob with ewhoring..) that it can be really profitable when you're convincing enough!

I hope you liked it, since I don't like to brag about my earnings.. Anyway, here was my motivation ?

Didn't he ask for your cam?

NoobCell - November 3, 2015, 9:33 am

What did you start and finish your sentence with hihhi?

Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Didn't he ask for your cam?No, I wanted him to open my stub, so I focussed so hard at that, that he eventually wanted to see a picture at least.. After that picture I told him to pay for more pictures or for a cam show. We discussed the prices and I answered some cam questions (none about proof) and that's it ?

If I were to Ewhore I could probably get $100 a day, since Psychotherapy and Psychological forensics is involved in this ^^ I might try sometime.

Give it a try haha, as soon as you're chatting with those pervs you'll get their money fast. Good luck ?

I use 1 account for ewhore/luring and attach them to a PayPal account which is verified and from the USA. I send the money from that account my main and exchange the money for cash with someone else ?

Thanks haha, but I always tell them that I'm good with computers so that I have made "packages" for special people I "like", so we can close a deal faster. I don't think if it'll be smart if I will ask what a Trojan is then.. Anyway, thanks again for the tip I appreciate it! ?

I don't e-whore that active, only when I'm bored or really need money.

I prefer to translate/write content instead of chatting to pervs, but thanks I hope I'll keep it going like this when I continue to e-whore ?

Just wait for the chargeback...

Truth Hurts - November 7, 2015, 3:40 pm hold on...$60 for 30 minutes cam ?

I charge $50 for 5 minutes

LOL wtf

brTT PaiNN - November 7, 2015, 3:43 pm

Now go back to CPAElites and refund the money you scammed on there.

Hoodie+ - November 7, 2015, 3:47 pm

If you didn't send the pics and the cam, than it's called scamming and not ewhoring :P

LOL wtfIt sounds better for them than 5 minutes, since most pervs want to see videos and pics from "me" ?

Bro use a extension spoofer and change your virus to jpg say its a sample photo of you (make sure you crypt it) then when they say it doesn't work or its not opening then give them the legit sample photo and say something like sorry my computers having problems (and bam you got a slave and some extra cash)

Hope this works

Exactly what I was looking for! Thanks a lot buddy ?

Believe it or not, but I was sending them an exe file which "extracts" and then it takes 5 random pics from my private collection.. it didn't work like I hoped for, but I was happy with their money ?

Could you PM me a recommended spoofer or should I just Google for a good one?

Haha great earnings bud. I wanna get my girl and family some nice gifts this year and I think I'm just gonna try ewhoring the only problem is about how to withdraw money. Do I use my personal PayPal account, if not how do I create another one? I don't want my account getting suspended or anything plus my email is a guy email

Try to withdraw money with PayPal or Amazon Gift Cards, the cards are easy to exchange for PayPal money and with PayPal you can spent your money on things or deposit it to your Bank account (if attached).

Create a girl email like: namesurnamebirth year

So if your Ewhore is named Chromecaster (examle) use: chromecaster1990@gmail.com

Add that email to a new PayPal account and use your main account (the one with the guy's name) as vault or transfer it from that account to your bank ?
