Thread: [\[Official\] Anime Adventures Discord Chat](#)

Tasemu - November 3, 2015, 9:44 pm

Hey guys, in an effort to move away from Skype I have made a new official communication server for AA members using Discord.

Skype, over time has proven to be an effort to deal with. Both with the clunky-ness of the app, the advertisements and free limitations and the fact that abusers could easily return to the chat and new people found it hard to join.

The new discord server requires no program downloading, no user signup (unless you want to reserve your username), is moderated and also easy to access and meet you friends.

Use the link below to join the discord and join us to chill and chat Animu. ^^

The server currently has:

- Text chat channels
- Voice chat channels
- Giphy support
- Table flip command
- Member listings
- Shows games that members are playing
- And other shit

Seen some Twitch streamers use this, it's pretty neat that we're getting one. I'll drop in when I get some time. Thanks Tas :-)

RainbowHentAi - November 3, 2015, 10:01 pm

That NSFW chat already has stuff in there...

Tasemu - November 3, 2015, 11:53 pm

Discord is amazing imo. perfect place for a community. ^^

Join in, you dont even need to make an account.

Isley - November 4, 2015, 4:06 am

Discord is a pretty sick website, glad AA is moving to use one.

Peanut Butter - November 4, 2015, 4:41 am

I'll try to hop on often and chat, I like discord a lot compared to skype

neightworks - November 4, 2015, 4:47 am

Tas doesn't know who I am and that disappoints me.

Tasemu - November 4, 2015, 4:53 am

I don't know anybody. <3

?I???ry - November 4, 2015, 5:05 am

Awesome Tas :D

I'll be joining the server when I get home.

Duyere - November 4, 2015, 5:44 am

Thanks man! This is much better than using Skype.

Cloaked. - November 4, 2015, 6:23 am

I gotta say, this looks awesome.

I'll try to stay active for more than a day on it, won't promise anything though.

Tasemu - November 4, 2015, 11:13 pm

I've been working on a bot for it too, though I need to find a reliable node host for it. Once it's a bit more polished I'll write up docs for the commands. At the moment it's as 2.

!ping: replies pong

!hb <anime-slug>: bot will post details and link to a series in the chat

Is It still a buggy mess? Last time I used It there were consistent crashes, keybinds not working, terrible voice detection, etc.

Ahh, okay. To be fair, I did use It when It was in a fairly early beta/alpha stage, so that could be the cause of all the issues.

Tasemu - November 5, 2015, 9:25 pm

Voice is clear for me. My favourite part.

Yuikoro - November 5, 2015, 9:44 pm

Well isn't this a cool little thing

Might have to get my friends to switch over from Skype to this.

Chips Ahoy McCoy - November 5, 2015, 11:20 pm

Nobody is online for me right now. ;_;

Ran - November 5, 2015, 11:49 pm
