Thread: [\[Second Attempt \] Minecraft Vector xD](#)

NoobCell - November 4, 2015, 9:16 am

Been practicing today on how to do minecraft artwork, this is what I came up with:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

The sword is kinda meh & the arm looked a bit shitty :P plus might need some work on the shading :P

For those interested, this was my first attempt yesterday:

Do you hand draw these with a tablet or use a mouse?

"Now I don't mean to sound like a lector,
But this fine piece is surely not vector.
As your strokes start to flush,
They are certainly brush!"
Said the illustration technique inspector

Awesome, my skills are improving every day & my rates would be low xD

Holy, wow. There is nothing wrong with arm, nor the sword the character has equipped. I'd rate this 10/10 - it's magnificent. Also, is this Perfect Cell from Dragon Ball Z? It looks like Cell.

I'm going to be attempting landscapes tomorrow :P

EightBit - November 5, 2015, 12:38 pm

The second version is totally awesome.

Seriously, I love your GFX. If it's possible, I'd love to be able to hire you for GFX?

Osuka - November 5, 2015, 12:54 pm

if you can make them look like this i might higher you for a couple sketch ;p

I think that's to advance for me, but could probably give it a go when I get some spare time.

E n v y - November 5, 2015, 4:04 pm

Looks pretty cool, would like to see other designs of these as well.

Yumii - November 5, 2015, 4:38 pm

Looks pretty good dude. This is drawing though, is it not? Not quite GFX. Correct me if I'm wrong.

Illustrations are graphics, this is certainly in the right category.

Fish - November 5, 2015, 4:53 pm

It's much better than your first one. Maybe make the head stand out more. Maybe for your next one you could use my Mc skin? :)

Young Plug - November 6, 2015, 7:10 am

Nice! Keep practicing, the second one you made is a 7/10

BLKLXVESMATTER! - November 6, 2015, 11:21 am

These are awesome, how do you do these? (What software, etc.)

You should make a tutorial video.

I use Cinema 4D to get the position I want, as I suck at guessing that kinda thing xD then I use Photoshop CS6 and simply go over the 3D model =]

Saint - November 6, 2015, 12:10 pm

Looks way better, good job man keep doing it.

Jaribo7475 - November 6, 2015, 12:20 pm

Looks great keep up the good work man :D

NoobCell - November 6, 2015, 2:52 pm

Thanks guys =] I've just opened a fiverr gig offering my services xD

Mr.Hidden - November 6, 2015, 4:24 pm

Nice skills right there, I like the art!

I do for others, check my sig

Seife?r - November 10, 2015, 5:50 pm

em, I don't think this is a vector lol xD

Though still pretty cool :)

I didn't think it was a vector, but it's not an illustration or drawing so didn't know what to call it, lol

A vector is a image that uses maths (how my lecturer used to describe it) but pretty much it means that the image can be resized and will not lose any quality, for example look at this image ->

https://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/3/30/Vector-based_example.svg

If you zoom it, it stays crisp, no blurry/ pixelation. Your image is a raster image, which means it uses pixels and when you enlarge it, the pixels will stretch and it will lose quality. ?

Probably best to just call it a graphic :)

Thanks for the info, will start calling it just a graphic :P

RevangE - November 12, 2015, 4:43 am

Yeah arm looked a bit shitty but everything else looking great, nice colour

SonikArts - November 12, 2015, 7:28 am

Looks awesome! Very clean!
