Thread: What's the greatest high school prank that you or someone at your school pulled?

Frank Underwood. - November 10, 2015, 3:31 pm

I had this firecracker blown in front of my deans office in high school.

These are always great.

Aeroslim - November 19, 2015, 9:02 am

For my senior prank...fucked up now that I think about it...we put our principals car (an old shit stain) in the school swimming pool. We bought him a new one but still...was fucked lol.

Cammy - November 19, 2015, 9:03 am

Someone thought it was a good idea to stuff a few firecrackers into his turd on the toilet

Walt Disney™ - November 19, 2015, 9:04 am

Everyone at my high school were pussies. No seniors pulled anything.

We stole the massive inflatable burger king dude off the roof of BK, and put it on top of the school.

We got fined $500 as BK thought someone straight up jacked it.

RPLCHC13 - November 19, 2015, 9:04 am

A brand new turf football stadium and field was constructed and week later the football team picked up our Athletic Director's car (a brand new chrysler 300) and walked it onto the center of the turf fired and just left it there. He though his car was stolen but saw it there eventually, the thing it, you can't just drive on turf without fucking it up, so he literally forced other students to life it back off the field for him. Shit was priceless poopGod - November 19, 2015, 9:06 am

I once let chickens loose in the school on the last school day. Had to clean up all this shit. :(

D?vil - November 19, 2015, 9:06 am

Some people at my old school put honey on the stairs and door handles, someone took an allergic reaction and had to go to hospital, classic.

They also put some fish guts around, was not nice.

TNF. - November 19, 2015, 9:09 am

My school is boring. We didn't have any jokes around here.

D?ath - November 19, 2015, 9:09 am i sprayed a swastica on the wall of the bathroom and summoned hitler

Kinguin - November 19, 2015, 9:10 am

Tons of firework inside the school, blasting toilet's with massive firework rockets, had a pack of 50 9mm rounds, we took the box on the ground, and threw a big rock at it (inside the cantine). Also, I've done a lot of other things that made me expelled 10 times +

Cheers! ?

Did you wear your mask to school?

Strictly - November 19, 2015, 9:46 am

We egged the front office on the last day of school.

Lol reading this is so funny. I wish my school had a cool prank.

OGdude - July 29, 2018, 3:40 pm

My school never did anything bad tbh.

Who Soup - July 29, 2018, 3:45 pm

When I was in high school I saw some people put the principles car on this island. It's not too far from shore but still I have no idea how the hell they pulled that off. It's fairly rough all the time and there's not really a way up from the ocean.

xecret - July 30, 2018, 1:23 pm

High school is a frustrating environment in itself, I have no respect for others that pull pranks or harm others during school.

Hsde - August 4, 2018, 2:40 am

Someone pulled a fake terrorist attack on my school and 3 students got felony charges.

CoinBuyer - August 14, 2018, 3:50 pm

Dead fish and old rotting fruit got put in people's lockers and stank out the whole place, people that did it ended up having to stay behind and clean it all up.

Sir-Teabag - August 14, 2018, 3:55 pm

My school is dumb as fuck. Someone spray painted "Muck-up day 2017" on some farmers fence. (we have this thing called muckup day where all year 12's do dumb stuff because they can) someone else put cling-wrap on the toilets and someone shit on it lol

we also have this massive life-sized horse made from fiberglass inside the Health room. One year some kids broke in at night and put it on the roof.

Another year some other people came at night and concreted posts in the staff car park driveway c00lkid66 - August 16, 2018, 11:42 am

Got 2 pigs and let them loose in the school, they had signs #1 and #3 and everyone was looking for #2 which didn't exist. Also brought cows up to the 2nd floor, and cows can't go back down stairs so that was interesting.

Provocative - August 16, 2018, 1:56 pm

The senior prank my year was incredibly weak. People just ran through the halls at 10:00 on the dot while screaming and playing music through a speaker.

The most legendary one at our school was filling the first floor hallway with sand, bringing beach chairs, and wearing beach clothes while pretending it was a beach day.

bellummachina - August 16, 2018, 3:08 pm

I did a lot of naughty shit back then. Digging up a tree and fully replanting it in the center of the cricket pitch (yes it was moved back and yes it survived, i was careful alright!), spreading dope seeds all over the vice principals flower garden outside his office, cherry/smoke bombing the bathrooms, gluing all the chairs in woodshop class to the ceiling etc etc. Got expelled a couple times but the teacher who was the head of my grade saved my naughty ass. His family owned the school and he was dating my step sister and basically kept me in school. Great guy, i have and still do owe him a lot. Don't know why he put up with so much of my crap.

Idle hands? yeah right! It should be "Idle brains are the devils playground". School was boring alright so i just got up to nonsense and in my time we could get away with a lot worse than you can now. I wouldn't suggest most of the things i did then, now. You would likely get arrested. ?

But none of that compares to my father. In his senior year he saved up 7 months worth of farm animal crap (He lived on a farm) that he liquefied in barrels. And on the night before the last day of the year he and his mates broke into the school late at night. They broke into the principals office and proceeded to fill all his drawers, cabinets etc with it and then splash it all over the walls and everything! The principal was a real dick and back then real corporal punishment was in affect. Apparently this guy just loved to cane the kids for no damn reason, so my pops still maintained that "He had it coming". Long story short they got identified and the police got involved the next day and my pops paid a price, but he swears that it was worth it! I always new my pops was a little shit! ? I feel rather tame in comparison now that i think about it. ?

savaged. - August 16, 2018, 8:05 pm been excluded myself for a few things, best one was probs for setting off smoke bombs in school with a jetlighter. funniest thing i've seen is someone get their shorts fully dropped to their ankles and their tiny dick out, kid wanted the guy who done it prosecuted and put on the sex offender register. he didn't come into school for a week since the full school saw and was laughing at him, and he started crying.

n0XZe - August 17, 2018, 8:35 am

The prank i pulled back in the time was turning the class TV on and off by my watch

AlexRobinFuller - October 2, 2018, 2:18 am

We once went on a ski trip with school and due to insurance you were only allowed to ski down the slopes if you were accompanied by your teacher or a ski instructor. However, a few guys in my class decided to sneak off at lunch to do some free skiing.... when they came back up on the chair lift and back to the bar we were eating lunch in, we told them that the teachers had spotted them skiing down the slopes and if they didn't go up to them right away and apologise they wouldn't be allowed to ski all week (The teachers never actually saw them and had no idea)... Sure enough they marched their sorry asses up to the teachers and said "We're really sorry miss...." "Sorry for what?" The teacher replied in a confused manner... "Skiing down the slopes with no teacher or instructor just now?"... "YOU DID WHAT!!". It was hilarious, sure enough they were now no longer allowed to ski for the next day, priceless!

Convinced a student go to a far place with a imaginary girl he met on facebook

Who Soup - October 2, 2018, 2:21 am

I think someone shot off fireworks? idk I went to a boring school.

AlexRobinFuller - October 2, 2018, 2:22 am

I have another one just to add.... me and my friends considered ourselves to be more than the usual class clowns, we like to orchestrate more complex pranks than the average student. One day in our free period we went to the library and printed off about 100 fake posters informing students of a non uniform day tomorrow (I live in the UK so we have to wear suit and tie for school always). Sure enough the next day half the school turned up without their uniform to the teachers delight!

A friend of mine used to buy firecrackers, we exploded them in the back of the school.

Also, we stole the fire extinguisher and used it too, that was so much fun.
