Seife?r - November 19, 2015, 7:23 am

Why the hell would their be free vegan food kits? >.> Im just confused.

If they have food they are willing to just give away, then give it to some homeless people or people who desperately need it, not some random'ers online that might want to try going vegan xD

Mouse? - November 19, 2015, 7:25 am

Dammit I was really hoping this would be a troll post and the starter kit would be a megaphone to tell everyone you're vegan, and a book on how to tell meateaters to kill themselves or something.

Not too sure. The link came from Peta.org

Vouch for this just got my carrot in the mail! GLWS

Sridhar1011 - November 28, 2015, 10:30 am

Sorry guys I was a bit busy these past few days so couldn't reply. I will send the pm's. And ya the link is from PETA so I don't think they are fishing for information, as the organisation is promoting Vegan this is just a small campaign to show people the vegan way. And people are free to critique if they face any problem in terms of data theft. Cheers guys :)
