This thread.

This group.

Beyond is a legend to the group he has been admin for almost a year. He decided however when I was sick... well this:

these are quotes from a friend since the fucking asshole removed me before I could see. Luckily I'm smart and I had a close friend and another newer friend with me... I'll link their profiles so you can be like, omg you're awesome.

Anyways when I finally got on from being ill I wasn't in my group... SINCE SUNDAY... I spammed the fuck out of beyond and he obviously wasn't online. MY best friend admin who I know IRL and my new friend (links below) both planned with me the attack. Add me and we removed all previous admins. Thread will be updated soon. No more admins except these three. If they turn on me well my life will suck. May just make an untalkable back-up group :).

Thank you for everything and my awesome friends for sticking with me through this.

Third time this month I've called out people for being frauds and all have been.

I really should start making threads but most just cause drama. ?

I don't do it. It's called eWhore and Chill and it's mostly all that now. Most in the chat are eWhores to be fair and join because of the subject but stay because it's fun. The odd will ask for packs or advice and they'll get it. I can show chat right now and like no ewhore topic convo for about an hour.
