It was formerly known as the Marketers, until it was closed due to members' involvement in massive thread-push abuse. The following section covers the unofficial groups of Hack Forums. Groups listed here have made themselves known in some way across the forum, which is why there are so few. Groups are added when I feel they have proven themselves i.e. at my discretion.

Information on these groups is generally scarce so I've gathered up what I could. If you are an owner of a group listed here and wish to correct or contribute to your listing then please post on the thread.

The Black Hand was launched as a countermeasure against the wave of scammers late in the year of 2014. It offered proven victims the opportunity to take revenge on those who cheated them and possibly recover some of their lost goods.

It proved popular very quickly after taking out many high profile scammers and released a handbook on how to recover information as well as protecting your identity online.

The group then became a subsidiary of Null, an official usergroup.

Roses is saying that since Phoenix was discontinued, Omni made the purpose to sell another group, hence REPLACING what was Phoenix.

It may have been a "new" group(aka Phoenix was hidden from us, and then when bought up, changed and became visible again), but still came from what WAS phoenix.

May I add, I am a group leader in Crypto. :)

I can't answer that as I am unsure, although, either way I will be making sure this stays up to date.?

Realizm - November 20, 2015, 7:38 am

If it gets stickied, you shouldn't get anything for it like the sticky award. No offense to you, but that whole drama shit and Odus having to get the thread is the reason Omni won't sticky it. If you get something out of having it stickied like the award, then the drama could start all over again when you step down.

No offense taken and I completely stand by your statement.

I'm not too concerned when it comes down to the award, I'm not an "award whore" per se and in reality wouldn't deserve it for having a passed down thread. That being said, in the case it's stickied I won't accept the award because it is not mine to have. Although, it comes down to his decision of course.

i think it's more of a 'skate / re-sellers made it popular' by creating a giant demand for it type of thing. I don't know I like the accessories like the towels / bottles / ect.

I dropped a lot on stuff recently but I am saving a lot so I can drop dollars on Tom Ford when I go to N.Y I can't fucking wait. TF is one of my all time favorite brands next to givenchy & Hermes. Fuck they make some clean stuff mate.

Low key I saw this sweater today and it looked fucking amazing.

White but it was clean and it was one of the ones that had the "Holy shit this looks nice" look.
