I'm pretty sure he knows that (reason he's giving so much) but as for the value, I think he's implying that they're not valueless.

Omni is the main reason it stayed listed for so long. He'd constantly fill buy and sell orders to help keep daily volume above .2 BTC.. I'd say it'll be removed within the fortnight.

These guys could cash out on a buy order and get $20 for the coins at the moment.
