Thread: Looking For a Serious Partner With Good Ideas and is Looking to Earn Good Money

Kumara - November 19, 2015, 8:50 am

Hello!

Today, I'm for a trustworthy partner, looking to earn some serious money.

I need this money to build a new PC, as well as to help with rent and house bills.

I'm looking for a serious partner, with a good idea to earn some great money.

I'm down for almost anything that earns money.

Things I won't do:

Invest.

Do all the work and then split profits while you sit back and earn money from my work.

Card/extremely black hat shit that could easily land me in jail.

If you have an idea and are looking to earn some serious money, post here or PM me.

That's all I have for this post!

Have questions or concerns? Message me!

Thank you. ?

You are looking for someone WITH an idea, why would this someone choose YOU instead of a friend?

If they have a friend to do the project with, they won't be looking in here.

Simple as that.

If they need an extra hand, I'm also here to help them.

I do have XMPP, however.

He has a good personality and easy to get along with. Make sure hes doing his part if you do partner with him. Me, Swag, and one other member started a project. In a nutshell he never did his part. We waited over a month for him to do something that wouldn't take more than 30 minutes.

Hes a great person to start a project with. If you choose to partner with him. Make sure hes doing his part.

Sorry to hear your situation..

You should focus on a real job to make this money and to save up so you can invest in online opportunities.

It will be very difficult if you've got no money period.

You should probably post what you can actually do...

Any skill sets? Marketing, SEO, etc.
