Seems like a good buy to me. If i had that kinda money laying around. Just figured I would share. Seems to be a black friday deal

Don't ever come close a Dell Optiplex PC. I owned one and it was utterly shit. Stay away if you are not a fan of relic items.

the price doesn't seem that crazy man

If you know absolutely nothing about computers you should definitely purchase this. :) Hey, at least it has a floppy drive!

Overclock it to 12ghz, download 4gb of ram and you're good baby.

With all honesty this is a good deal cause of the windows 7. Steal that and download a pirated version on it. You have yourself a cheap backup computer and genuine windows 7 pro for another build you might make.

I'm never about that duo core life but it seems like a pretty good deal thebignasty - November 23, 2015, 2:13 am got for small factory or ultra small factory.

Those Dell machines are pretty good, have 3 x of them in my office.

But i prefer the small factory. Ultra small factory have memory limits (you can't upgrade)

Core 2 duo is shit, at least i5
