Thread: Milked my first guy... sorta

So after about 2 days of no cash and alot of hours trying, i finally get someone who wants to buy. At first I thought he was a time waster. He just messaged me and said how much, I told him the price and he sent the money lmao no previews no live pics nothing. He asked what made me start selling myself and I had this genius idea to mention my "friend" who helped me start. Long story short eZ ass buyer got em on two separate accounts and ended the money drought!

Yeah I was making all of my money from a free pack that I know how to use really well. I bought a $50 pack from Fliiix but I think the girl is too hot so people question her more than the free pack I use. If you use them right and think of a way to fake proofs perfectly you can do great with any pack
