Ya apparently he had it his whole life and even after all the times hes been to the vet they never noticed until his legs stopped working. I was with him when it happened. He was crying so I thought he was sick and gonna puke or something so I put him next to his litter box as fast as I could. Since it was rushed I kinda tossed him (only 1 foot off the ground) there and he just slid with his legs pointing out each end like they had no bone support. Was put down the next day.

Also, its a good time for this <http://nyanit.com/hackforums.net/>

pauline0 - November 24, 2015, 12:19 pm

Cat feces contains Toxoplasmosis and destroys the lives of people who can be potentially infected with it, by coming in contact with it.

There is no cure for toxoplasmosis and will wreak havoc on a victims immunesystem, brain chemistry, it can also cause incurable skin diseases as well as a whole laundry list of other horrible symptoms.

Might want to think about about that when your posting it out to unsuspecting people for money. Not to mention it is highly illegal and you would be prosecuted for it and rightly so. Don't think for a second that if the police get a lead on this that they won't chase you up via Omni.

You are gambling with peoples long term health for some pocket change.

Or better yet, open the box, see a ton of packing peanuts, reach into the peanuts, and get shit on their hands. These are the questions...

Lazboy - December 11, 2015, 9:04 am

I got many idea's that would help. Can you make the "Return Address" someone else we don't like? 2-for-1-deal?

Would you consider Human Log Turd for 20.00? maybe put it in a hotdog bun and say "eat me"

You need to have some "add on's"

Hotdog bun - 1.00

message custom .50 cents per 8 words

eat egg whites day b4 adds most nasty smell to human poop - 10.00

Wear Gloves roll poop in a ball and dip in chocolate they will take a bite of it - 30.00 (WELL WORTH IT)

If you want more idea's I am FULL of IT literally. I think I can build you a sweet website to make all the options much simpler. You also could use options that compliment the holidays.

Aceman - December 11, 2015, 9:06 am
