Edit: Getting this product checked http://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5068042

Can't show photos or links, but Avast tells, it's backdoor.

Root - November 23, 2015, 2:14 am

The White Hat Section said that the file is clean. I trust them:D

mr joker - November 23, 2015, 2:25 am

any language does it coded ?

added a few screenshots

mr joker - November 23, 2015, 8:24 am

save capture in remote cam doesn't work

and shows this message

i tried to run the rat from another place from c\ and desktop but show same result

imagizer.imageshack.us/a/img633/4854/HdRQn2.png

and i tried to compress stub but not succeed as well

win 7 64

and same result in button "safe frame" in remote desktop both them are not working

my regard

LaFLame - November 23, 2015, 11:13 am

why is there this host in the file ? 184.25.56.90

but there a password for the rar... lol how did you unlock it ?

vaxo - November 24, 2015, 8:40 pm

The website doesn't load for me

LilHackers - November 24, 2015, 8:50 pm

Looks, good might try it out later.
Cheers ?

vaxo - November 24, 2015, 10:59 pm

Whats the password for the rar file?

What if this guy is the feds and they're just using this program as bait.
Nobody is safe anymore.
Run far away.

Aren't you developing a RAT called Red Eye or something like that?

You asked the whitehat section to make sure that a file wasn't a virus?
