Thread: How many people are timewasters?

Tomorrowland - November 23, 2015, 12:24 pm

How many people just waste your time? I would say 1 in every 25 people I meet is a customer

Male - November 23, 2015, 12:34 pm

All depends where the traffic comes from

So fucking true mate

TridentX - November 23, 2015, 1:14 pm

There are time wasters no matter how good the traffic is. Just like there are buyers even from the worst traffic. It's all about turning "no" into "yes".

SIM-2285183 - November 23, 2015, 1:14 pm

Too fucking many for me, to be honest :/

k20121983 - November 23, 2015, 1:25 pm

i m new to ewhoring and tired of time wasters. hope i find someplace to get nice kik traffic apart from saturated websites.

TGMotionz - November 23, 2015, 1:43 pm

so far iv spoke to round 200 people and got 0 customers!

elchupacabra.x - November 23, 2015, 2:38 pm

Well, i think i have a 5-10% percentage of buyers within all my Kik chats.

Most of the timewasters are indian, swag guys with shitty emoji in their names, and people who always send dick pics.

Apart from them, they're almost all potential buyers. It's up to us to convince them, but someone will waste your time anyway, saying he will be payed "tomorrow/next week" and they're trying to waste your time and get some free nudes.

And, about the sites, i've tried a lot of sites and i've got, more or less, the same buyers' percentage on every site

My policy is if you arent buying you're blocked

Donald Goodfella - November 23, 2015, 5:20 pm

Well.. I've started today and I can tell you this..

Some ppl are with the shits, they're going to pay. Usually these people will be older people. No offense, usually if you can get someone from Europe, Asia or the Middle East your set. Both of my last customers (and my only paying ones) were from Europe. The kik chats are usually filled with teens, but about 1 in 10 will be some old pedo acting like a youngin.

Just go on a ton of kik friends finder chats before you go to bed, put your username. Go to bed and by the morning you'll have +300 convos open. I made it on one site and had +35 convos open so you should be fine.

SATANxxxxx - November 23, 2015, 5:24 pm

depends on the day. sometimes my first 5 customers all buy. others it takes me hours to get a customer. best feeling imo is turning a no buyer into a buyer. we should work at car dealerships.

Ayahuasca - November 23, 2015, 6:14 pm

I have about 60% buyer rate.

It's where the traffic comes from man.

Welcome to earth, full of people who waste you're time...

IRL or on a internet forum, you will run into these people frequently.

erase - November 23, 2015, 9:59 pm

People can only waste as much of your time as you let them. You should be able to tell if they are going to waste your time within a minute or 2 zegotha - November 24, 2015, 1:58 am all depends about the traffic but in all ammount 90percent so if 10 ppl add you 9 of them will be timewaster from my perspective. one is good for milking.
