I will be trying this next week with some pair that I don't need anymore and use it to get 2 other pairs hopefully, will post proof here when I try the method.

Definitely happy with my purchase, you can make a lot of money reselling the jeans.

okay how often can you do this ?? also can you do at same store ? and most important do you need to buy a pair at retail price first

Can do this as many times as you want, you bought the method, take advantage to it.

Yes, you can do it at same store, but is much better to do it at different stores.

Yes & No. If you have a place to get the jeans under retail then yes I guess you'll have to pay retail for first pair.

Bay - December 6, 2015, 9:20 am

Great Suggestion - December 23, 2015, 3:38 pm

The method requires you to do an excessive amount of work.

that in the end would not seem worth it.

unless you want a new pair of jeans

so i guess.

if you really want some trues then you should do it, but tbh century 21 its 100 dollars a pair.

this method probably does work i dont know i didnt try it lol i bought it read it and just shrugged. its to much work though.

1700block - December 23, 2015, 4:40 pm

Thanks for your review. I'm still online and will be online all night. Get at me lets work.

Those are the only store on the east coast. You obviously can't read that the method works online store as well. I go to outlets bc it's closer and I'll get 3 pairs of jeans instead of 1 or 2.
