Thread: Is it worth buying a sales tag?

John F. Kennedy - November 23, 2015, 6:23 pm

I see people with sales tags on their threads. Is it worth buying one?

Will I see an increase in my sales at all? I'll be buying it for my eBook in my signature. I don't want to waste my money, so I need some advice. Is it worth it? ?

honestly its how the thread titles are laid out that makes my eyes notice it.

Yeah, I just don't know if it's worth it. Cause I would love to get more sales, but idk.

if your product is stickied, i think so, or if you bump it a lot.

I think purchasing a sales tag is more influential to a user's choice to click on the thread and purchase only if they have a prominent slot in the desired section. Such as the sticky section, or top 3-4 posts consistently. People will most likely overlook the sales tag if it's further down the page. I would purely recommend using A sticky, and then purchasing a sales tag, which will likely get you a higher increase in visitors.
