It's all in this picture, he didn't reply me after this,

Can't even provide me the transaction ID, and I'm late to found out that he's a known scammer, I was too stupid to trust people.

There's no such payment from him at the day we deal, nov 21

"Sent to the email you provided"

How about you show the lack of transactions on your paypal, rather than having an invalid report?

If you checked him out before dealing with him, he has multiple scam reports open.
