Like really.....

UPDATE 11/24/2015 7:53 PM

(Seems to change while refreshing, might have been using a VPN.)

Long story short, I purchased a pair of Rayban's from this thread (ones on the left). Put down $23.61 because I wasn't paying the full amount right off the bat. I got another PM from a different user telling me he bought the same pair and put down the $25 with him. He skyped me and showed me the pair of Raybans via Webcam to make sure this was legit + the amazon receipt he had.

This moron....

Overall I'm not even mad deal was too good to be true, but this man has taken money from other members as well. He makes multiple accounts and bumps his threads all day to get people to fall for this shit.

This kid needs to get ban ASAP, all he does is bump his Amazon thread and fish in more people.

He is still trying to sell, but has no vouches.

Valid scam report, no one is buying from him right now, or I hope.
