Thread: Best thing to do if your model is a 'cam' girl for verification

xTaylorSwift - November 25, 2015, 3:54 pm

I've had so many customers ask for verification pics, such as hide one boob, touch your nose, touch this, etc. But because my model is a CAM girl i can easily get hold of literally ANY picture via her twitter, if your model has a twitter with an tremendous amount of images just get it from there.

Why would your model have a twitter? That would make it saturated as fuck.

I think he means he makes his vcw from a girl who does cam shows and has a twitter. Then he goes through her twitter for pictures to send to the pedo.

There are 1000s and 1000s of cam girls. Most have Twitters. The odds of your customer knowing the girl is extremely slim. Even if he did, you could just pretend it's really you.

I convinced two people I was a cam girl they had been watching from masturbate, told one I'd give him a shout out during the next show. Thank god he couldn't make it to that show XD.

One of my pack is actually a mfc model.

I always pretend I am her and they still believe me.

They are are so desperate, they would believe anything.

Although, she does not have any of those in her Twitter -_-.
