Thread: How do People Ban Skype Accounts?

SirDym - November 27, 2015, 6:52 am

Hey Guys,

I wanna now how Peoble do The Spam Service?

Are They reporting the Skype Account with Some Scripts? Or are they Using some Exploits? :)

Spoiler (Click to View)I dont think there is a exploit to ban users lol, everybody would get a blackmail to pay for not getting banned xD.

I guess they are extremly reporting, so it generates a autoban or something like that

Its a public method, they make a fake conversation of the other user harassing them and report it to skype.

Massreport + fake chat with user harrasing will work...

Sadly easy to ban someone's skype..

It involves faking their profile and then saying rude stuff to yourself. Its kinda like taking a crayon, drawing all over the wall, and then blaming your sister. Your mom believes you because you drew flowers and not dinosaurs..
