Did you give him the show/pics? Also na you shouldn't be worried - never spend anything you get for a couple weeks anyway.

also how much is big cash?

One other thing.

If you already redeemed the giftcode then you are safe, unless you wanna meet up with him and phuck.

It isn't possible to be tracked via KiK, the traffic is encrypted.
If you were doing it via Skype, then you'd have to.

You should still use a vpn either way or at least hack your neighbors WiFi and use their connection.

as long as he has the claim code he can redeem it. so... redeem it first than he cant transfer it
