Thread: [\[ADMITTED TO SCAMMING\] \[PROOF\] Scammer Relationship | CS:GO = \$100 | UID = 2785911 |](#)

Hexalogy - November 29, 2015, 11:18 am

So yesterday I made a thread selling CS:GO item's and the user Relationship - His profile

Did not pay me back after I traded him the item's I went first because he had no Neg's he seem'd HQ had lot's of positive rep from trading, Buying BTC, Selling, CS:GO, Paypal, Ect. I have gathered proof of everything aswell.

So after I gave him the knife he stopped responding and went offline then came back and said Next I'll just post all of the convo's.

UPDATE: He just came online I just message'd him again and now he asked for my BTC address again and I gave it to him and he stay'd for a few more and went back offline.

[img]http://s7.postimg.org/clnfon3cr/image.png[/img]

Reason, Is because he went offline right away after I sent him my address.

UPDATE: ^

Here is our convo from yesterday.

Relationship, We can resolve this if I get my money back or the knife back.

Also I used a excuse "Im getting evicted soon and need rent money and what not I just didn't want to get scammed again.. I'm not getting evicted nor do I need rent money but I need money for my personal life, I'm not rich and can't just ask mommy and daddy for money.

But hey! I guess scammer's have to also.

So that's the end of this, Hope it can get resolved!

Look at the update he did come online asked me then went offline after 5 mins still nothing and if he says he sent me the money he can show the link of the addy page like a user has showed me before.

Only thing you can do right now is wait it out.

Or the "I was hacked!!"

Scammer Reputation: You're required to leave a link to a Deal Dispute thread you have created to infer someone is a scammer (ie: scammer, scams, chargebacks, scamming)."

That means you can't call someone a scammer in rep unless you made the deal dispute thread. It says nothing about linking a deal dispute thread in someones rep. In fact Omni said he encourages it.

You can't call someone a scammer if you didn't make the thread. You can still link a deal dispute as long as it isn't rep abuse:

Examples that are NOT abuse:

"deal with caution"

"DWC be cautious in dealing"

"careful in deals"
