Hi,

I purchase the upgrade on 26 November, just wandering if there's a delay for any reason at the moment?

Try PM'ing omniscient for more info.

If you haven't gotten your L33T within 48 hours, pm omni and he will fix it for you.

OK, I have sent a PM to him. The help doc said I can PM or create a thread.

Thanks.

PM is usually a good idea. Omni is a very busy man.

If you have PM'ed him, I'm sure it' will get sorted very shortly.

Did you read the message that it sent you? After 24 hours if you have not been upgraded pm staff with transaction ID and wait. No need to make a thread.

Staff do not deal with upgrades, only Omniscient does.

OP, if you've sent him a PM please wait for his reply.?

Looking into this now. For those that do end up waiting beyond 24 hours for an upgrade please include your PP email address so I can search it. Maybe 1% of orders error with the notification and that causes an issue. I just need to verify payment.
