Shadow's Axiom Zombies Application

Who Am I?

Name: Shadow

Skype: vile.bg

Console: Playstation 4

Playstation Network: Trillest_ASVP

Why Should We Accept You?

I am an EXTREMELY active gamer when it comes to the Call of Duty series- especially zombies. I first discovered zombies when I was 11, when I went over to a friend's house and saw him playing WaW. Obviously I became addicted to the game, so I ended up buying the entire game JUST for zombies. Years later, upon the release of Black Ops, when I heard that Treyarch had a zombies mode, I freaked out and instantly bought the game (although Kino was a disappointment). I bought every single DLC and would play hours and hours and hours. My favorite map on that game was Der Riese, the original map from WaW. Finally Black Ops II came out, and thats where I really started going ham. I can easily go round 70+ on Town, Buried, Mob, and Origins, and I just end up quitting when I get bored. I play with my three best friends from school, and we just go all out during the weekends. Now, I have Black Ops III, and the map that I play the most is "The Giant", partially because it is a remake of my favorite map, and it brings a huge nostalgia rush. So why should you accept me? I play zombies, all the time- literally. Whether it's on my PS3, PS4, or XBOX. When i'm not home, I play zombies on the iPhone app; yes that's how addicted I am. I literally own every DLC on all of these games. If you accept me, i'll be very active within the subforums, and i'll obviously be playing zombies with the other members.

What Are Your Strategies?

I actually have many strategies for zombies, it all depends on how many people are in my party, whether or not i'm going solo, what map i'm playing on, which guns I currently have, where the box is, etc.

When I'm going solo, I usually find one spot where there's a decent and open area to train, an area to take cover, and a decent nearby wallgun. For instance, in the map "buried" in Black Ops II, this would be near the area where Jugg is located. In the map "The Giant", this ideal area is inside near the catwalk, where the KN-44 is located. This way, I can use that wallgun to get to higher rounds without worrying about running out of ammo (and PaP it if possible), while being able to train when necessary. In addition, when i'm going solo, my order of perks is Quick Revive > Juggernog > Double Tap > Speed Cola. However when there is more than one person in my party, the order changes to Juggernog > Double Tap > Quick Revive > Speed Cola. If you'd like to see my other methods & strategies, I can tell you via PM or you can watch me play (I don't want to make this too lengthy).

Is There Anything That We Should Worry About?

I have a warning level of 60%, that is pretty obvious. However, I ask that you not judge me by my warning level because the infractions that i've received are all honest mistakes. Sometimes when i'm posting, I can't really tell if my post is HQ or not, but I intend to change that. I am NOT a threat to the community or to you guys in any way, so take into consideration my gaming skills, not my warning level.

That is all I have to say. I play a lot, and I intend to be very active if I am accepted. Thank you guys for taking the time to read my application :)

Kind of wish that you would have made "Xbox only" clear before I took the time to make my application. Oh well.
