Thread: Most Popular People Lookup/Dox Site?

Pchild - December 1, 2015, 2:49 pm

I recently am trying to look up someone who potentially has previous civil suits against them. Long story short I came across this website courtcasefinder.com. Upon paying $19 for a month access of unlimited searches, all the results are incorrect or outdated, you can't even see details of cases or arrests etc.. Basically the way the site advertised it was complete and utter bullshit. I was now thinking of using a trusted source like Intellius or Spokeo or even USSearch. Anyone recommend any site they currently use? I'm just trying to find recent cases on this one person as I heard there have been previous lawsuits. If anyone can help out please let me know. Thanks!

I use White Pages, I'm sure you've heard of it.

I also offer doxing services; lmk if I can be of assistance to you.
