Thread: Kinda clueless what to get my girl friend for Christmas

I have no idea what to get her. Anyone got any ideas? I was thinkin of getting her flowers along with one if those big ass teddy bears and a card. I just can't decide what to do.

Depends how long you've been dating.

Flowers, a handwritten letter, and maybe something small that you know she'll appreciate. Something sentimental.

Perfume or jewelry is the first thing that comes to mind.

We've only been dating for like 2 months now, but we've been talking a lot the past 6-7 months.

She said she'll get pissed if I get her big things. So I'm trying to keep it small and get her like 3-4 things

Don't get her something to eat or something which dies in a matter of time.

Get her something memorable. Like a "Love you" teddybear or something. :)

You can give her a chocolate box with red roses and a card.

Girls like chocolates.

And yes you can give her a tiara which would make feel special.
