DuguWudi - December 2, 2015, 4:45 pm

This is about a partnership with this member Be??.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1893427>

Its done in pms in hf.

The partnership is 60/40 split, I'm getting 40, I put in US$250.

I didnt receive a single cent from it, its been months.

This deal dispute will remain here forever, or I get my money back.

YungTrigz - December 14, 2015, 5:56 am

If you did invest and it failed in no way is that a scam.

It's a bad investment.

SixInchesDeep - December 14, 2015, 6:06 am

Nice way of comforting a guy who just lost $250.

Getting straight to the point and telling him you lost it all

I stated that all of his money will go for an INVESTMENT.
I can't really do anything more.
I won't either try to defend myself saying anything else.
It didn't work and I'm not really sorry.

Damn looks you invested a good chunk into multiple hf users. You should be more cautious on who you invest in.

Maradonnie - December 14, 2015, 2:00 pm

It says in Beta's PM he will return the funds if the project failed, and he has not returned the funds, so a scam.

#Skyline - December 14, 2015, 4:24 pm

Beta agreed to return funds if this fails.
And that's even stated within the PM.

YungTrigz - December 14, 2015, 8:48 pm

DuguWudi - January 5, 2016, 8:20 am
