Thread: [\[Upgrades and awards\] Ub3r + L33t + Gift award](#)

Coordi - December 3, 2015, 3:26 pm

Hey all, I'm deciding to do this giveaway as I just sorta feel like giving back to the community in anyway possible.

There are no requirements to enter, all I ask is that you just post why you want the upgrade or the gift award. Specify which one you want, Ub3r, L33t or the award.

Please keep in mind, if you are l33t wishing to upgrade to ub3r then make sure you are approved.

The giveaway includes:

3x Ub3r

3x L33t

3x Gift award

Your post number is the number you will have, please only post once.

The winner will be selected through random.org

Contest ends either the Friday next week I get paid or the Saturday following.

Hopefully I've put all the details I need, comment why you want the upgrade or the award that I am giving away, and also mention which you want.

If you do post twice I will count your first post as your number.

Thanks all and goodluck!

Sickk - December 3, 2015, 6:17 pm

Hey, posting to enter for ub3r (I'm approved)

I want Ub3r because of the cool features, such as trust scan could get pretty useful sometimes. I really want to +3 and -3 rather than the lame +1 and neutral. Plus it could help me get more known on the site, anyways goodluck everyone.

Rentox - December 3, 2015, 6:20 pm

Why I want ub3r, I'm already a l33t. I became a l33t 5 days after joining the forums. And I've always envied people with the ub3r title because they're instantly more credible. Thanks man!

RallyMitch - December 3, 2015, 6:51 pm

I would like the gift award because i dont have an award and It would make my profile look more swaggy! Thanks for the oppurtunity

l?l ?z? ????? - December 3, 2015, 6:53 pm

I want the gift award because I've been entering contest for it a wile now and never won :)

Bamboozla - December 3, 2015, 7:29 pm

One of the reasons that I believe I deserve the title of 3P1C is because of how long I have been a part of this website. There have been a couple time periods where I went inactive for a bit of time because of school, etc. I just purchased L33T for myself a few weeks ago and made a post about how I would do my very best from then on to contribute my knowledge/kindness to the other members of HF. Since then, I have hosted a few giveaway threads doing graphic design for Users' signature here on HF or personal use. Also, I do my best not to lurk so much throughout people's threads without trying to make a positive contribution where I see fit. I do my best to also not just help the upgraded members in hopes of receiving positive feedback to have a high number of green on my profile. My main focus on this website is to contribute anything I possibly can to ALL members. If I were to receive 3P1C it would give me an even higher responsibility for trying to be a good role model on these forums for all the non-promoted and promoted members.

Anyways, I'm sure it gets strenuous reading so many of these posts. Good luck to everyone else and thanks for considering me :)

Inspiired - December 3, 2015, 9:32 pm

I would love to receive the Ub3r upgrade. Would 100% inspire me to further my activity on the forums, as I have regrettably been away for awhile (not that any noticed or would have/should have lol)

Saitama - December 3, 2015, 9:57 pm

Giftaward - I would like to have it as a shiny badge on my profile, thankyou for the giveaway!

Goober2008 - December 4, 2015, 4:16 am

Thank you for a giveaway! I would like the L33t upgrade. Mainly because of larger inbox size and ability to edit post. I can't stand 1440 minute limit what non upgraded users have, especially when I create a new thread and can't edit my own first post. :))

Not to sound rude or anything, but try refrain from posting more than once, just so it doesn't boost your post numbers on the thread, trying to keep it 1 number per user. I'll count your other post if it happens to win.

Long Story - December 6, 2015, 3:55 pm

I could use l33t to further my businesses and projects. By having l33t it will help with my reputation among the fellow browsers and buyers. I can than mark the members who I deem untrustworthy and or the people who have scammed. I like to give to the community, and help others with whatever it is they need. I am high-quality and can provide a lot of useful knowledge in the future. Thanks for taking the time to read my post, hopefully I will win l33t, and show to everyone what I can provide for this community.

Thats all the winners for this contest, after a long time getting the winners, so many people went for the gift award so in my next contest I may give away more of those.

Well done to everyone who won, sorry again for closing this contest so early, however I got a number of replies and I was able to select the winners.

I will proceed to PM all the users who have won and they will get 24 - 48 hours to reply to me, else I will retract the prize and give it to another user via random.org aswell.
