Thread: Doom Alpha Registrations Are Now Open to All

Red S?x - December 3, 2015, 6:31 pm

If you want to get in on the Doom alpha, now's your chance. Bethesda has announced that registrations, previously restricted to those with beta access earned through preordering Wolfenstein: The New Order, have now been thrown open to everyone.

As with most closed tests, there's no guarantee you'll get in, but if you want to take a shot you may now do so at Doom.com. You might have trouble getting in—the site is currently chugging a bit—but once you do, hit the "Alpha" link in the upper-right corner. Select your platform, and follow the instructions from there; successful applicants will receive an email containing further information. The next Doom alpha test is slated to begin tonight at 10 pm EST and will run through the weekend.

It's likely to stress test it more.

I got invited recently. You actually reminded me to play it.

I had no idea this even existed.
Thanks for the share.

Message me with your GT and we can party up for the beta.

Formant - December 4, 2015, 2:00 pm

I signed up last night and I just got an email with my invitation.

Sweet! Looking forward to this!

Doom used to scare the shit out of me when I was a kid.

Not sure if I'll be on tonight, but I'm 99% sure I still have you added. If I see you on whenever I am I'll hit you up bro.
