I haven't dealt with the user in the past but I'd talk it out as much as you can and confirm everything. He seems very legit and has released things I have used.

w4RNING - December 4, 2015, 9:58 am

Seems like a legit scam report.

Check out his trust scan, he has 2 scam reports with a total of $75.

Vouch, asked this user had he been scammed as he posted on ?eumonic's thread saying he sent the gift and hadn't received any money.

Then I PM'd Leumonic, this was his reply, clearly avoiding any confrontation and information about that.

@OP Not friends with him was just saying he seems trustworthy until I read what other users posted.

I'd deal with caution sad to see him release HQ shit and then just throw away the acc.

satlanmet - December 4, 2015, 10:11 am

Don't deal with the user, I messaged op and his story seems legit, sorry for your loss man, he should reply to this soon

Yoshikage Kira - December 4, 2015, 10:15 am

How did you order the gift? If you did PP while it was on sale, just CB & it'll get removed from his account.

Quinn. TEMP - December 4, 2015, 10:17 am

Yea its sounds bad

only fuc king 8 $ he cant pay

His trust scan is sketchy as hell, IP's that match other users, 5 unique countries logging in.
I can see this being bigger than just a scam report.
