We agreed on a deal of $25 BTC for his $50 AGC. I went first and sent to which he immediately logged out and has since not been on Skype. The transaction took place on 12/5/15 and it is now 12/7/15 with no signs of the guy paying back.

I bought L33t just to get this skid banned.

In most cases staff doesn't interfere with deal disputes, meaning he won't get banned. Its unfortunate. Hope it all works out and you get your money back

T7Amaazee - December 7, 2015, 8:04 pm

should probably show proof of the skype name.

Zexo - December 7, 2015, 8:05 pm

This name is too close to mine.

he has g2fa and his last ip change wasn't even close to recent. hope this gets resolved.

You dealt with an impostor, retard.

Real Zexi's BTC address: 1KvkNa1kKs7L5AiWmJyDC7D4wrWkxMjeRa

Dealt over $500~ with him already

Also LOL @ "I bought L33t just to get this skid banned."

You think that $18 will get people banned?

Gosh either $18 is a huge sum for you or you're plain retarded

Zexi - December 8, 2015, 12:34 pm

Sorry for your loss.

But thats not my skype, and not my btc address. That isnt even my profile pic on skype lol. Dont open fake scam reports please.

I have allot of people who can vouch for this. Please dont stain my reputation like this. :)

You should of first asked for a PM confirmation.

And @DamienVC

Thanks for vouching for me, i never do deals over skype. Rarely anyone has it.

brian188246 - December 8, 2015, 12:35 pm

What is the Skype profile you dealt with? Was there HF confirmation?

That isn't Zexi's real Skype's profile picture.

I've personally dealt hundreds with him, and if there was any a dispute he would immediately repay me + interest for the troubles, one of the few members I would trust with money.

I don't think you dealt with him.

BossTycoon - December 8, 2015, 12:45 pm

That is not Zexi's BTC address I have dealt with him before.
