Thread: Someone Impersonating Froggy on HF Chatbox Userscript

Froggy - December 13, 2015, 9:05 am

I've gotten way too many weird PMs so I decided to make a thread. Someone is impersonating me on the HF Chatbox Userscript. I do not and have never used this userscript. Do not attempt to make any deals with me without PMing me first. I am not selling nudes. I am not accepting money for Red Lions memberships. I am not looking for a currency exchange.

DO NOT CLICK ANY LINKS POSTED ON THAT CHATBOX.

Use common sense.

Thanks.

Edit: Someone made this GIF for me. The Chatbox user links to my profile, has my name and avatar, but it is not me.

Yoshikage Kira - December 13, 2015, 9:06 am

"I am not selling nudes"

lol someone said that you were? ?

w?fl - December 13, 2015, 9:07 am

Raymond Reddington - December 13, 2015, 9:07 am

Fistsworn - December 13, 2015, 9:08 am

Too bad you don't sell the nudes...

What's this? Is someone hitting the lions?

First Nokia compromised, now you...

Thanks for the warnings though.

Raymond Reddington - December 13, 2015, 9:09 am

Can somebody tell me what that chatbox thing is?

Cammy - December 13, 2015, 9:11 am

It's some stupid userscript that adds a Chatbox to the top of HF. I don't recommend it.

Scymo - December 13, 2015, 9:11 am

it's so easy to edit that userscript for the chatbox, nobody should trust anything said in there.

_r00t - December 13, 2015, 9:12 am

Scymo - December 13, 2015, 10:54 am

yea don't trust anyone in the userscript, since it's so easy to edit.

samsepi01 - December 13, 2015, 12:48 pm

I think it's part of the HFES userscript thing.

CPA Exposé - December 13, 2015, 1:08 pm

Damn, people never fail to find a way to abuse something.

Incorrect. It is a separate userscript. It's been abused long before this, just someone happened to chose someone with a high status.

Cyam - December 13, 2015, 1:18 pm

And this is why you don't create such a stupid implementations that will only cause more scam risk towards other members.

Okay, my mistake, I was under the assumption that most features like this were part of that single userscript. A legitimate version of the chatbox would be a nice implementation, but would be open to masses of abuse.

Moderators would be nice.. oh well lol.

Yeah, it would place a much bigger workload on staff, and on the HF servers too, so I doubt it will be implemented, but it would be nice to see.

mods would never work because the script makes it too easy to impersonate anyone.

reBELLYus - December 13, 2015, 3:06 pm

After being active during the past couple of weeks, it has come to my attention that a mass wave of users here try to impersonate others for monetary gain. Do these acts run wild year-round or only year-end at holidays/Christmas time?

Swip3r - December 13, 2015, 3:08 pm

You still living in Miami froggy?

I understand that but the scamming happens this much year-round? Ouch.

Glad to see I managed to get into most of the HF chat pictures.

The person in the HF chat is still at it. XD

If HF made it officially though, it wouldn't be as modifiable.

Today he sent "still selling those nudes people. hmu with your credit cards! (dont forget pin numba)"

using your profile image and name but this time the profile URL was different:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1834476>

I'm not sure if its him being stupid or just trying to frame someone.

BooGod - December 14, 2015, 10:52 am

Well, everyone is at your own risky by using a script not provided by Omniscient...

Jim Crow - December 14, 2015, 11:03 am

People have put a lot of time into making that project. The chatbox is not stupid, but the people that are in there are sometimes a little annoying.

Viral Dragon - December 14, 2015, 11:10 am

Froggy, why u lie? Granted, it was sold only to me, but you did infact, sell nudes at one point, to me. ._. I thought we had something special?

On Topic; You can rest assured I have never nor never will use a chatbox on HF.
