Thread: Scammed by Grievous \(Roses\) UID= 1754121 and Optimized \(Anonymous\) UID= 2250372 no.2

WWWhite - December 15, 2015, 5:07 pm

The username in the time of the scam was Grievous

I have bought their mentoring service of an advanced method of e-whoring here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5006686> check the 9th page of the thread, they didn't really care about me

Let me quote the thread

Quote:Guaranteed Profit - in the case you are not able to profit you'll receive a full refund + $100.

He was operating it with Optimized (now Anonymous•)

They claimed the method will make me earn 500$+/day
It costed a 1000$, we arranged that I pay half upfront, and half later
So I sent 500$ (in bitcoin)

<http://prntscr.com/93q6hv>

<https://blockchain.info/tx/7e62bf9ce806e88446013f778fb968f12ee7e1f3daf4950500d13cc72a53b44e>

I can sign the address if necessary

The other half was supposed to be sent via PayPal

His last answer to me on skype was on 21st October (Listopad), so he hasn't answered me for almost a month

<https://i.imgur.com/nv0Fy8j.png>

On 5th November I sent him a PM over HF

<http://prntscr.com/93qbk3>

And up to this day (12 days later, he did not accept me on skype nor answered to my new messages on HF)

<http://prntscr.com/93qc0m>

Optimized did not answer my skype either

This is a sequel of this thread

Flacko Jodye contacted me and told me he'd repay me fully for the method, if I edit all my posts and in the thread and write

"The user Grievous is paying me back in increments and as of now this dispute is closed until further notice or if any problems may come up in the near future"

The agreement was 80$ right away, then 200$ each week until the full amount is repaid

After the initial 80$ (which were over an unverified PayPal, which got flagged and under review for 24 hours!), I asked for the rest over bitcoin (since that is what I used to pay for method)

His last reply was on 2nd December (14 days ago), I sent him messages on skype and HF, but no reply at all

Although he told me he will not ignore me

I have saved the replies he requested to be edited in a notepad file in a case he decides to bail, which he did

CRT - December 15, 2015, 5:09 pm

I highly doubt this is legit as Greivous has spent so much $$ this past few days helping members with things including myself. Personally I would trust Greivous more than any staff member.

Greivous scamming?

Not sure about this.

Seah - December 15, 2015, 5:12 pm

Damn, i hope this gets resolved OP, $500, damn.

WWWWhite - December 15, 2015, 5:19 pm

OP is the same as here.

500 actually, because we arranged to do half upfront

I'm trying to keep calm, since raging will not bring any good to me

I just want my money back

Okay, I was unsure about the rules, but I'll write it again

About the method:

Shitty method, which didn't reveal anything I didn't already know.

I would be fine with that if it actually worked, I was promised to earn 500$+/day but I spent over 10 days working on this method, earning only 150$ which was from unverified paypal accounts, sent as items&services and the PayPal got blocked (I highly suspect it was sent from Roses multiple accounts since it was items&services and I tried the method with a different account/laptop Roses and Anonymous didn't know about, making nothing [unlike the one they knew about])

So basically, after 10 days of "500$+/day", I got 150$ in a limited fake PayPal in items&services.

It was supposed to be 50% auto-pilot, which it wasn't.

I had to make new accounts, e-mails, phone numbers every minute , it was nowhere near auto-pilot.

The worst thing is, I also wasted 10-15 days of my life, , and the time I spent I would use productively (e-whoring if nothing else).

Legit scam report and I am not surprised. Long awaited though.

I did not ask, I said I hope :)

Not true

I even made a video about using the same thing like 4 years ago

The method just combined a couple of things I already knew about and made them into an amazing duo that doesn't make you any money, awesome! ?

Btw, I literally live from e-whoring, I make around 2000$/month from it, so I'm not some sort of a noob that "doesn't know how to use it".

I know this shit, and this shit is complete shit.

Even if I had absolutely no idea how to use the method, there's still the no-profit money back guarantee!

I tried to be nice, and waited for Griv to answer, which he didn't

But suddeny after this thread, he's alive!

He actually responds to my posts, hmm

@OP, add him on Skype and see how he's willing to work with you. Hopefully he'll help you make the $350 you're still owed.

nope, the 150$ are made from mostly unverified accounts, and sent as items&servies, PP got limited very fast, and Griv offered to lift the limit

I told him he can keep the PP, and just refund me

However, limitation has not been lifted, and interestingly enough, only the PP on removed (he knew about) made sales, while the one on removed made none and removed is better, and more popular

The whole method is just making an account on removed*, removed (a description they gave me) with a link to my sales page on removed, *removed
There's not really anything you can do wrong

Even the Removed one made more sales when I complained to them, that I'm not making anything lol

He could easily make his money back with the method, I think. I'm not 100% sure what it is but if he can make $150 with a shitty pack of pictures, he could probably make more with a convincing pack. Perhaps have a photoshopped proof sign or something with your Badoo user ID. That's convincing. It always increases sales for me, but I never used Badoo and don't know anything about it.

@ Roses

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Nope, I can't easily make my money back with it

It would probably take 30+ days of 4+ hours/day of work

I earned a total of 150$ which got limited
And I'm pretty certain most of these sales came from them

And like more then half of that, was the first day, when I highly suspect Grievous and Optimized were faking sales
As more time passed, the sales decreased, when I complained, they increased again hmm

I worked with 5-6 removed at once, I changed around 50 accounts/day
For a minimum of 4 hours/day, in the cities and times Grievous (Roses) told me, for 10+ days!
I wasted 10 days of my life

And I made 150$
And it was all made on the laptop (account) they knew about, while my other laptop made 0 sales!!

I earned 150$/day e-whoring, removed not only wasted my 500$, but took the 10 days from me in which I would earn ~1500$

(Nov 18, 2015 06:14 AM)Honest•• Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Just putting this out there, but I have watched 2 livestreams of Grievous make $200 or more in 30 minutes while ewhoring. Unless he is sending money to himself, then I'd say his method does work.

I remember this report from a while ago...

Here's your tl:dr from what I got:

User purchased Grievous' Ewhore method which guarantees a refund if he doesn't earn.

User earned a little bit, and believes the money to have been sent from grievous in order to make him believe that the method worked.

User was then ignored for a little bit by grievous, and thus assumed that the method was a scam. User created the first scam report. After a little, the user was convinced by Flacko that he'd pay him back for him to remove his posts and edit it saying grievous paid him back. User received only $80 as compensation from Flacko and didn't receive anymore, even though he said he'd pay back the full amount. In the end both Flacko and Grievous ignored the user, and he never got a refund.

Benjamin Cakelin - December 15, 2015, 5:41 pm

TL;DR

After reading it OP paid 500 in btc and arranged to pay the other 500 in PP later on. OP has been getting ignored for 12 days. "Flacko Jodye contacted me and told me he'd repay me fully for the method, if I edit all my posts and in the thread and write" Then they talked about refunding him starting with $80 then $200 everyweek. Bought an e-whoring method he was selling for a 1000$, I asked for escrow, he refused, I somehow got him to accept 500$ before, and 500$ after

I got a method which literally tells you to set iMacros to like people on badoo, while your Paynite link is in the description

I used this method on 2 laptops, one he didn't know about
And the other he knew about

The one he knew about made money the first couple of days (not even close to the 500$/day he talked about), after we went out of contact, no sales
I contact him again, magically a couple of sales appear
Few days later, no sales at all

The account he didn't know about did not make a sale at all

Most the sales I got were from unverified accounts, and all were items&services

PayPal account got limited, he promised to lift the ban, he never did
So, I got 100ish $ on a limited paypal, and 0 sales on the account he didn't know about for a method that he's selling for a 1000$

He claimed this method will earn you 500$+/day
I made 100$ish in 2 weeks I was using the method
On kik e-whoring, I make that per day!
The method was also "50% auto-pilot", but in reality I had to create new SMS numbers, e-mails, and badoo accounts all the time
Not every couple of minutes, but all the time since I was running 5-6 badoos at a time and they get blocked at a very fast pace

They didn't even care enough to download the pack and send it to me, they sent me a link to thesauceftw.com, for a "private" pack

And all this for a 1000$, worst thing is I paid only half first (500$), and since it was bitcoin, now, it's worth a 1000$, so I basically paid the full amount to get scammed xD

Yes, read the OP under the -----

They sent me 80$ from an unverified PayPal (the transaction got flagged for 24 hours), after which I got no further payments

And for 14 days, no contact at all

Even before that, contact was scarce

He was supposed to send 200$ in bitcoin on 24th November

Last contact with Grievous was 21st October

I got 80$ from an unverified PayPal from Flacko Joyde on 18th November

Which is almost a month in difference

He was supposed to pay back 200$ next Tuesday, then 200$ the week later, and then the remaining part

However, same as Griv, no reply whatsoever

No disrespect to you, but why would he lie? He is the one that gave someone $500 for nothing, and has to settle for petty payments? It's a shame he had to do that in the first place, especially when they admitted to taking the $500 payment. They should of fully refunded him.

Nothing related to any eBooks sold by me or Grievous, these are private methods.

This is a 2-on-1 session where you'll have both me and grievous teaching you how to pull in $500+ a day off eWhoring and how to get quality traffic.

Guaranteed Profit - in the case you are not able to profit you'll receive a full refund + $100.

No investment will be needed after you purchase. Everything after that point is free and will be

I just gonna say this; Stop buy methods, they are not worth even a penny. Except if you have an outstanding method which is almost never sold and if it is it's not for the public.

I have bought methods before and always get the same conclusion (it's a major sham and shit).
"legit because it has different words in it".

To hard to explain the entire shit, short: Don't buy e-books or methods.

About the member that is accused, i do not know him but it seems that OP have given all proof that is needed so im going with OP on this one. Good luck, but i doubt you will get the money back. Just keep the report open and active and post the remaining information you have if needed... then as you said earlier get back to e-whoring or something to get those money back and then promise to yourself to never buy e-books or methods ever again. I am not affiliated with Grievous' business and I understand the feud between you guys can make things a little sour.

But, Grievous is in Archive/Dawn so I do feel like I should comment.

Grievous gave me a loan of $400 not terribly long ago, really without strings attached other than it be paid back within 30 days. It was especially needed since we were hours away from actually losing Archive/Dawn mid-purchase.

Regardless, he's been through with myself and though yes, this report is legitimate, I'm sure he will resolve it forthcoming. He's not a bad guy.

Anyways, he'll remain in my group until he proves intention to fuck OP over otherwise. He hasn't chatted me since those giveaways, either.

Griev?us - December 16, 2015, 6:48 am

Never was going to refund OP in the first place, Flacko did for some unknown reason.

This can remain open, he leaked the method and posted it publicly. It works and ive even given it to some other users and they've been able to generate revenue off of it.

It's not my fault you can't manage to put in the time. Since you're from some distant island, it's hard for you to do the method and I understand that but that's why I told you time schedules to do it at yet you didn't listen to me, he'll, on several occasions you didn't listen to me till a few days later.

Not my issue at this point, he leaked the method in this very thread but edited it out when Flacko was refunding. It was never my decision to do so and I'm unsure as to why you put it as me refunding you when in reality it was him and I have no affiliation in my business on Hack Forums with him and regardless my name shouldn't have been put on that refund statement.

In conclusion, I'm not refunding you hence you leaking the method publicly on this very thread and then editing it out after. If you want me to show you how to do it properly then I can but in reality the method is probably fucked because you posted it and several members went to attempt it. You brought this upon yourself by leaking the method. Staff were notified but weren't able to take action due to you editing out the methods before they could do so.

Wasn't going to be resolved, ever.

Flacko was going to refund the fella but after me knocking some sense into him, didn't.

(Dec 15, 2015 11:15 PM)Zack Fair Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Did you see how much BTC he was blowing away on giveaways yesterday? ?

He even bought Froggy a $500 award using BTC.

This money was spent probably the same week I received it, so it wasn't from him.

The money I gave away was from numerous things over the past few days.

I had over $1,000 BTC in my wallet that I wanted to blow which wasn't generated by doing business on Hack Forums but rather off-site.

For those who got this far and want a TL:DR. The user leaked the method and edited it out his posts on the old thread. Several users here that know of the method know it's profitable. Fumes for example know's of it.

Regardless, none of OP's money was used in my giveaways and was spent weeks back, likely the same week I received it. I've put more into this site and helping other users then to just ruin it to a scam, if I was in the wrong I would've gladly refunded this user but he ruined a great method by posting it publicly and opening this up once again and framing me saying I was going to refund him when in reality, it wasn't me and nor does he have PM proof , or any, that I even said I was going to refund him.

There's no need to, I gave my statement in regards to OP saying I was going to refund him when I wasn't going to and nor did I ever say I was.

Unsure of why he closed the old thread with the closing statement that I was refunding him when it wasn't me refunding him.

Any-who, a user that I personally am not on a good relation level with (Fumes) actually said the method was profitable and he knows of it. Was. It's a huge factor in this dispute because OP leaked the method in his previous thread and it was edited out after a few days giving Hack Forum users the access to it and causing it to go saturated.

If you're always preaching about giving back to the community through awards and giveaways, I think you should just give OP some sort of compensation. This isn't a silly eBook we're talking about, it's $500 for an eBook, which is ridiculous. Publicity-wise, you can just return $x to him and be seen as one of the best guys ever. "Grevious returned the $500, what a great guy ontop of all the other great things he does." or "Grevious took money from people and gave it away as pixels."

That's one thing people fail to realize when there is high profile disputes like this. If you just pay it off right away, you're clean - nothing happens. But if it's long and drawn out, it's gonna stick to peoples mind. But obviously, you don't want to pay him back but would rather spend that $500 you can return (or even work out a smaller amount, who cares as long as you settle it) on Froggy (rofl).

I'm still on OP's side on this one. Because he for once paid 500$ and he kept on going for weeks with it and even waited for replies from you for weeks. Let's say in his defense he had to explain the simplicity of the method or why it wouldn't work for him... If he couldn't do that people would go on and talk about how the method is great and that he haven't done enough for it. How is he supposed to give details on why he wasn't able to make any profit from it if he didn't reveal details about the e-book. If his defense i see why he did it and he still respected a timeline for weeks but never got a reply.

Let's say Grevious is entitled to say no to the refund, still wouldn't that be a great immoral thing to do? It looks weirdly.

If you are selling a product and on that time you say you have one skype which later on doesn't work you can't expect the customers to understand that you have changed it? For whatever reason. It's problems on both ends, which would conclude the right of the payment back as it's the customer who gave the method his trust when Greivous couldn't answer for weeks with the intentional skype that he had at the time when he sold the method.

If he was that hell of a man he would at least give some sympathetic words instead of a simple coldhearted no. Even if there is a business, it's the one who can handle the pressure and the customer service that holds up in the end.

That is my two cents after I've seen his reply.

Also i would like to state that "Refund option" in e-books / methods are simply a sham, why? Because it's so easy for the seller to say "you didn't make enough effort" or something similar.

No, it matters greatly. There is a person who is asking for a refund, he wont get that but he will get an "compensation" because he's not entitled to a full refund obviously so I'm asking what will be the compensation... If you can't see the point then there is no need to reply as others obviously do. You see if you pay for something for 500$ then it doesn't work and there is a refund option and the refund option wont be entitled to him because of a mistake that the buyer and seller did but there will be a compensation for those 500$

So let's say he gets 10$ as for compensation, now everyone can see and hopefully think for themselves that there was no intention of actually compensating anything, except those 10$ to get out of the focus from this scam report.

I don't even know why I'm trying to speak logical with people who obviously doesn't care.

He's not even putting effort into the PM's, if he really wanted some sort of refund he'd at least try and speak to you, not sure what he's trying to do at this point.

Is this true OP? If so take the money. Even if you know it's wrong it's better than nothing.

About the PMS between OP and the accused. As we don't have a full part of the discussion it's hard for us to see what's going on. Either way, 330$ is an compensation that is really okey if you think about it from both perspectives. Because there was mistakes on both parts. I can't tell for sure if he did really spread the method or if he just mentioned the part that is essential for him to do but cannot do, hence the report which is there because he couldn't earn and therefor there should be a refund.

As i said earlier, take the money if they are truly offering 330$ as a compensation and never buy an e-book or method again where it says "100% refund if you fail" because it's not simply true.

Your justice will never be the same of others, this is a blow for you but do what you can do minimize the damage that have been caused. Take the money and learn from the mistake, other's have sadly lost a lot more than that just over some pixels on this forum. If you can minimize the damage do it, for your own good. As there wont be the 'justice' you seek, because obviously he can say what he had to avoid the full refund. Hence my previous words, do not trust e-book or methods that comes with the line "100% refund if you fail earning" or something alike because there is always a way to get out of that line depending on what the earlier terms are.

Reading through Optimized's original sales post, though, there are actually no Terms of Service stating... well, anything. In fact, the only thing that could qualify as a binding ToS is the statement OP quoted here:

'Guaranteed Profit - in the case you are not able to profit you'll receive a full refund + $100'

...and the guarantees that the methods being taught are all private, that no investment is necessary, that the buyer will receive some private packs, and that the sessions will be 2-on-1. Optimized and Grievous left it entirely open apart from that, so legally speaking OP could have videoed every mentoring session and then resold the videos on for a profit if he wanted to. It's really sloppy on the part of the sellers to leave it open like that, and there are no legal grounds to withhold a refund because the methods were leaked (as unfortunate as that is). The only thing Grievous and Optimized could claim is that by leaking the methods he's leaked their Intellectual Property, but I highly doubt e-whoring methods could legitimately fall under the remit of IP...

Heck, it's even sloppier when you notice that the sellers implicitly ALLOW leaking in their sales post:

'You'll receive 2 private packs upon joining the mentoring session which can be used however you want'

The 'however you want' part gives carte blanche to the buyer to do whatever they want with this content. This just goes to show how important clear and robust Terms of Service are when selling a product here.

And you're not taking sides with the people he upgraded

You do realize, he was ignoring my messages for 20 days?

I posted the thread, and got a PM the very next day

+ I leaked nothing, this issue arose only in this thread since Griv now has an army of people who he upgraded/donated/loaned

However, he knows I want a refund

20 days pass since I told him, I have sent him messages on the old skype, on the new skype (he gave me later on HF), and sent him 3 more messages on 3 different days

Apparently, at any time, he did not remember to accept me on the new skype he gave me, log into the old skype (which doesn't show offline, but away), or read any of the 3 HF messages before deleting them

When I make the thread, he's here to post

Rivalry - December 17, 2015, 11:53 am

Just going to repost this here for all the people trying to claim that 'leaking = no refund':

Reading through Optimized's original sales post, there are actually no Terms of Service stating... well, anything. In fact, the only thing that could qualify as a binding ToS is the statement OP quoted here:

'Guaranteed Profit - in the case you are not able to profit you'll receive a full refund + $100'

...and the guarantees that the methods being taught are all private, that no investment is necessary, that the buyer will receive some private packs, and that the sessions will be 2-on-1. Optimized and Grievous left it entirely open apart from that, so legally speaking OP could have videoed every mentoring session and then resold the videos on for a profit if he wanted to. It's really sloppy on the part of the sellers to leave it open like that, and there are no legal grounds to withhold a refund because the methods were leaked (as unfortunate as that is). The only thing Grievous and Optimized could claim is that by leaking the methods he's leaked their Intellectual Property, but I highly doubt e-whoring methods could legitimately fall under the remit of IP...

Heck, it's even sloppier when you notice that the sellers implicitly ALLOW leaking in their sales post:

'You'll receive 2 private packs upon joining the mentoring session which can be used however you want'

The 'however you want' part gives carte blanche to the buyer to do whatever they want with this content. This just goes to show how important clear and robust Terms of Service are when selling a product here.

At this point, I've done everything I could've and several members can agree.
I offered a partial refund, he said "No." verbatimn.

None of "his" money was used in my giveaways nor anything I gav away but was rather spent that same week (look through my blockchain transactions)

PM:

Here's where I offered a partial refund as he did leak the method in his very thread which is leaking a HF product.

Also note that the user posted publicly on what is needed to create a stealth which falls under the PayPal Fraud policy:

Proof of me offering a partial refund (never was able to agree on said amount because he prematurely denied anything and later harasses me:

(Dec 16, 2015 05:40 PM)WWWhite Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#)

In the next reply I also mentioned the PayPal got limited, I gave him the password when he promised to lift the ban, which he never did.

And that I'd rather be scammed for 500$ by force then for 250 by will ?

User earned $150, + $80 from Flacko. That's $270 left over which would've been the partial if he had not denied it or threatened me and Flacko.

It's not my issue anymore, he fucked himself over by threatening me and Flacko saying he doesn't want my refund.

At this point many can obviously see that he's just wanting this to drag on.

TL:DR, he denied my refund and didn't accept it which is provided in the proof above. Method works, have proof and can live-stream it. He's not getting a refund for the very reason that he threatened me and Flacko and attempted to contact several people hoping to get information on me. (Makes me giggle cause they told me you asked and laughed) Had he not threatened me publicly & through PM's he would've had his chance but he blew it by getting too far ahead of himself.

Why is it such a problem to repay 500$, if you earn 500$+/day with this very method

And if it can be saturated fast, why didn't you repay me right away when I asked but waited until I posted a thread (20 days later) without revealing any information about it except that it involves badoo and imacros, claiming it became saturated and that's the reason can't repay me.

For a smart person, it seems like if you had such a valuable method, you wouldn't allow such a thread to come up.

No, I "earned" 150$ on a PayPal that we made together on Skype (and I gave him the password)

All the payments were sent as items&services, mostly from unverified accounts

I have high suspicions the payments were framed so the method looks legit

If I have "earned" 150$, use the PayPal we made on your own, you already have the password and if you want to repay me, use bitcoin since that's the way I paid you.

If you look through the thread when he first initially contacted me for a refund I wasn't on Skype (this is when it was compromised and I wasn't on my skype for around 1~2 weeks, made a new Skype and told him to contact me on it but was spammed the same time by a addmecontacts bot so I likely removed him.) He never PMed me asking for an update on the Skype though so it's not my issue when something interferes with such.

Still being spammed by the bot as we speak. I sent in a email last night to get my username blocked on said sites so that'll be resolved.

If I would've known that he contaced me on Skype for a refund I would've gladly refunded him then but in his old thread he leaked said product.

Grevious, I understand what you are trying to do. I really do. OP supposedly leaked the method. With the leak, the method got highly saturated. Now that you are not able to benefit from it anymore, you feel you do not owe the OP a single dollar. On the other hand, the method did not work supposedly. If OP is/was able to show proof, then he deserves a refund. It appears you stopped answering which is why he got frustrated. Whatever the case, a partial refund is due at the bare minimum. That's all he received. Grievous offered $200 more and OP did not accept and then Grievous withdrew his offer so now OP has only gotten $80 in total.

P.S.: Grievous withdrew the offer because he felt OP leaked the method but according to OP, if he didn't leak part of the method, he wouldn't be able to proof it wasn't working.

Now that you are not able to benefit from it anymore, you feel you do not owe the OP a single dollar. On the other hand, the method did not work supposedly. If OP is/was able to show proof, then he deserves a refund. It appears you stopped answering which is why he got frustrated. Whatever the case, a partial refund is due at the bare minimum. Regardless, good luck to you both. Grevious does a lot for the community. He tries which is why I believe he is innocent to an extent. However, both Grevious and OP need to work out a payment plan or arrangement that satisfies both parties.

The method didn't get saturated, it's the same as it was before

If someone thinks that by writing a scam report that says badoo and imacros can get whole fucking badoo saturated, I really don't know what to say.

If the method could actually earn 500$+/day, he wouldn't think a second before refunding me. He replied to the thread the next day but allowed it to get 50 pages long while making an excuse that I "leaked" it, however did nothing to make me close the thread or remove the "leak". Which is just an excuse to avoid refunding.

Is this really how someone treats a 500$+/day method?
Claims it's "leaked" but doesn't refund me to close the thread?

I have audio and text transcripts of our mentoring sessions, the reason why I didn't post them is that I would be accused for leaking.

That didn't stop Grievous from the accusations, so I'll ask once more.

If you consider the method to be highly saturated, and if it's true, I should be able to upload our skype conversation?

Or if you agree, to find a moderator who will review the file on his own.

I got a method which literally tells you to set iMacros to like people on badoo, while your Paynite link is in the description

I used this method on 2 laptops, one he didn't know about
And the other he knew about

The one he knew about made money the first couple of days (not even close to the 500$/day he talked about), after we went out of contact, no sales

I contact him again, magically a couple of sales appear
Few days later, no sales at all

The account he didn't know about did not make a sale at all

Most the sales I got were from unverified accounts, and all were items&services

PayPal account got limited, he promised to lift the ban, he never did

So, I got 100ish $ on a limited paypal, and 0 sales on the account he didn't know about for a method that he's selling for a 1000$

He claimed this method will earn you 500$+/day

I made 100$ish in 2 weeks I was using the method

On kik e-whoring, I make that per day!

The method was also "50% auto-pilot", but in reality I had to create new SMS numbers, e-mails, and badoo accounts all the time

Not every couple of minutes, but all the time since I was running 5-6 badoos at a time and they get blocked at a very fast pace

They didn't even care enough to download the pack and send it to me, they sent me a link to thesauceftw.com, for a "private" pack

And all this for a 1000$, worst thing is I paid only half first (500$), and since it was bitcoin, now, it's worth a 1000$, so I basically paid the full amount to get scammed xD

I have not posted a reply with "better proofs", but replies he made me delete, which was 70% of all replies.

No answer for 14 days

He was supposed to pay on 24th November

On the 26th I send him a message asking why he didn't send, he answers with "yo"

And didn't reply why he didn't send

27th, 28th, no response

29th

I asked him if he made a deposit for next week

2nd December, he sends me an image of a deposit that says pending on coinbase

Apparently a coinbase deposit takes more than a month to be credited

This is the last contact I had with him

Later on it is a series of unresponded messages both on skype and HF

No

I wish he did repay me after 14 days, though

It's been over 2 months since I sent him the money

Reposting the same thing

I have already answered to this

Why is it such a problem to repay 500$, if you earn 500$+/day with this very method

And if it can be saturated fast, why didn't you repay me right away when I asked but waited until I posted a thread (20 days later) without revealing any information about it except that it involves badoo and imacros, claiming it became saturated and that's the reason can't repay me.

For a smart person, it seems like if you had such a valuable method, you wouldn't allow such a thread to come up.

You know I asked a full refund guarantee, and have stated I want a full refund, not a partial one

But you offer a partial one again

I still responded 8 minutes later

No, I "earned" 150$ on a PayPal that we made together on Skype (and I gave him the password)

All the payments were sent as items&services, mostly from unverified accounts

I have high suspicions the payments were framed so the method looks legit

If I have "earned" 150$, use the PayPal we made on your own, you already have the password and if you want to repay me, use bitcoin since that's the way I paid you.

Please point where I have threatend you.

Yes, my constant messegas for 2 months to you say I don't want a refund.

I said I want a full refund, not 250$.

Method doesn't work. He livestreamed me a dozen of 100$+ transactions as proof.

If anyone wants to, I can do the same thing with regular e-whoring.

I'm positive he used fake accounts to purchase my product in the first days to make it seem like the method works.

Please screenshot the people I contacted asking about your information.

I had people contact me and telling me you paid their upgrades, you scammed them, you're a douchebag etc. providing me information about you, but me asking?

No, I did not.

So, this is your excuse?

I imagine if I didn't call you -snip-, what would be your excuse not to refund me.

We've been over this, if saying it's a badoo method with imacros is leaking, I don't really know what to tell you.

Except for, decrease the price for a couple of zeroes, maybe 10$ would be more suitable.

And from unverified accounts?

Good earnings the first day, second day a bit lower, then nothing, I ask why I'm not earning anything, suddenly sales peak, only to fall again later to the same dust.

In the same time, account on Paylvy (I knew PayNite was your site) made no sales at all.

How many times can you lie about this

I never said I wanted a partial refund, I said I'm willing to take a full refund or the 250$ + a new method, if it's working (which I suppose is not).

After OP filed the first scam report, wouldn't it be judiciously to have a full-refund from being unsatisfied with the method, purchased from Grievous?

I sent other things besides the method in that chat. If he lets me see them prior so I can tell him what to blur out then that is fine. Regardless, I have database entries that prove my side legitimate but waiting for Flacko to send them again as they were removed on the previous thread likely for posting personal data.

I think it's far enough if he blanks out those "other things" and then we can see if he really tried. Just in the scenario, if he did indeed try, then what? If you still feel that he leaked your method, no point in him posting the chat logs if he isn't gonna get any of the money back.

He donates a lot to HF, upgrades some people, which allows him to scam and get away with it, he's just started, and these are only the disputes that have been filed, many have probably gave up seeing his reputation and army of flammers.

Btw, the 500$ I sent him doubled (bitcoin), so that alone is around 1000$ scammed, not really 500$

That won't prove anything as opposed to the database entries of views & sales you got.
When you got views you got sales.
When there was a peak in views you got sales.

When there was no peak you got no sales.

Untrue

Remember a day with 150 views and 0 sales

Versus a day with 40 views and 4 sales lol
Surprisingly the other one was the day I complained to you the method isn't working ?

Btw, you think I didn't know PayNite was your website?
It claimed like a 100 sales on the homepage, not on the first 5 pages when you google it xD
SEO pro ?

Where's the Paylvy database?
I noticed you were manipulating fake sales when I complained about the method not working Still, even with your manipulation, I only got 150$ mostly from unverified paypal accounts, PP
ofcourse got limited
I gave you the password, you promised to help lift the ban, you never did.

Results:

After 2 weeks of working with 2 PayNite accounts and 1 Paylvy

I ended up with 150$ in earnings, all on PayNite
0$ on Paylvy

Interestingly enough, Paynite is your website and you have its database entries

This method was known, and Grievous specifically told that this was a private method. Now, do you think that is okay? To sell a public method for that amount of money?

Clearly, you don't know the value of money, I assume you get your money from your parents when you ask for it, maybe OP worked his ass off for this and now he bought a public method, not even getting a refund.

Which is totally wrong. If Grievous is a kind person which many people say, he should atleast solve this case in a professional manner and maybe refund the money.

You are not selling a product, you are selling a method. Along with your method, you promised support and OP claims he did not receive that from you.

Anyway, there is really nothing left to argue about, you are not gonna offer a refund, OP is not gonna compromise on the refund amount either. This cannot get solved because both the parties think they are right. I am pretty sure most people who read this thread know who deserves what (:

This thread isn't about my argument or whether you are selling a product or a service. There is really no point about arguing if you are a "manufacturer" (lol).

All I have and am saying is that along with your "product" (since that's what you wanna call it), you promised "support" and OP did not receive that, OP feels that without the "support", the "product" is useless and he claims he already knows about the "product" (see how stupid product sounds for a method now) and hence he feels he has been scammed.

You could either keep coming up with all these things or you could simply make a compromise with OP. The actuality is with the latter, you could make a difference and this could come to a close.

Im studying psychology as a hobby and from what I've learned this post proves that your the real scammer. Classifying people into 2 groups in this case one that calls a product a method and one that does not usually means that you are trying to make the user's intelligence seem smaller. This is corroborated furthermore since you put a smiley face at the end indicating you find him funny and being funny is usually associated with stupidity.
tl;dr trying to make user seem dumb to get more people on his side

Also just to be clear im not taking sides i just wanted to point that out because its very suspicious.

It's still making me so mad that people respect Grievous after this scam. Are you afraid of getting negs or what's the point?

You all know damn well that grievous was wrong in this matter by selling a method which is known, he claimed that it was unsaturated which is bullcrap.

Stop stand up for this lowlife.

#Skipper - January 31, 2016, 10:21 am

Legit Scam Report. Hopfeully it can be cleared.

He offered half, he never increased

Let's say I take the 250$, it means I paid $500 - 250 = 250$$ for a public method that was given away for free by Flacko&Optimized

I'm pretty sure, when one pays 250$ for a public method it involves tricking or scamming, no sane man would pay 250$ for a public method

Yes but you don't understand that he's not gonna fucking refund you

If I were you I'd have taken the half refund because he's not gonna give you a full one, what is better? $500 for a public method or $250

Bearded - February 1, 2016, 8:54 am

I've spoke to Grievous and I guess I had missed out a few things on the thread, my bad.

?Hero - February 1, 2016, 8:55 am

OP you need to understand he will not be refunding you.

I will rather keep the thread up and save someone else from getting scammed for 500$, then take a 250$ refund and allow him to keep doing what he's doing ?

Selling a method Flacko&Optimized were giving away for free for a 1000$

Offering full refund guarantee if aren't able to make profit

Then ignoring me for 2 weeks is okay?

Bearded - February 1, 2016, 9:40 am

I give up with HF, got neg rep just for commenting on here.. ok.

You're not the only one

I've seen a couple getting neg raped in seconds after a post, some even banned!

WWWhite - February 7, 2016, 9:27 am

I have posted links on the method you're selling online for a 1000$ being given away for free

What is your response? ?

Lol that info isn't worth 500$, i mean, it isn't even worth 1$

HitSweMan - February 7, 2016, 11:32 am

Damn. So much money. just so much :O

This sucks man!

WWWhite - February 8, 2016, 9:16 am

Really, really sucks! ?

I think it's funny. This is why no one wants to deal in the marketplace anymore.

Him selling this for a 1000$, scamming people, I can somehow understand

Offering a full refund guarantee, and then not providing it is something I cannot

You claimed the reason for not giving me a refund was leaking

Now that it has been proven the method is public

What's your reason for not refunding me?

The reason is because his guarantee/warranty was bullshit from the beginning.

Op is retarded confirmed. I laughed when I heard that your friend took your money and fled the country. Seems like everyone's doing it.

Binary Ghoul - February 11, 2016, 1:28 pm

Grievous probably did scam you but regardless why didnt you take the partial refund? Are you prolonging this to get attention, or are you retarded?

Can you hear yourself?

I paid 500$ for something with a full refund guarantee

The guy gave an ebook that was given away for free by Optimized and Flacko

And I should have taken 250$ back?
