Thread: Official HackForums Group | The Black Lodge | How to join | Information

Hexicidal - December 17, 2015, 1:48 am

Thank you for showing interest for my group. The Black Lodge is a group based on "human experience." With being an individual, everyone has a background and a story to discuss. Within that, many of the struggles of being alive derive. Some of the best literary giants have come from those ideas. With that, many stories and ideas to share. We are a group focused on variety of ideas, but mostly pertain to the following:

- Music
- Movies
- Literature
- Discussions
- A sense of community

If you are interested in seeing what we have to offer, please consider joining us. Our recruitment will not be held until a time that is later to be determined.

Currently, the best way to gain entry would be through purchasing a spot in the group.

BitCoin is my only accepted method of payment. The price to purchase into the group is $25. The only barriers to entry are open scam reports, and toxic mentality. If you are interested, you must be approved. If you would like to be approved, please click the following link: PM to Hex.

Due to the time of the year, gifts are well received this time of year. If you would like to purchase a spot for yourself and a friend, I will drop the price to $45 for both of you. You must submit approval for yourself and your friend. You are not responsible for what your friends do, so fret not about removal if they are removed.

My rules and terms are very simple. The following rules must be followed: Subforum rules: Disrespecting other members, automatic removal. I'm not going to tolerate bullshit threats, or harassment. Does that mean you can't say something mean, or in a joking manner? No, but there is a line. Every member should know that line, and if it has to be questioned, then you know your answer.

Insubordination of leader requests, automatic removal. My leaders are hand chosen and are not here to serve you, they are here to serve me. They are my close friends and necessary to the success of my endeavors on HackForums. Listen to what they say and ask, and do it.

You are to represent yourself outside of this subforum with pride. Every post you make while wearing the userbar or having it on your profile is a reflection of this group and our image as a whole. If you are found to be tarnishing this image, then I will have to clean the smudge.

Activity is required for the success of any group. You will be removed if you don't meet the following requirements:

5 posts per week, and regular check-in thread posts. A check-in will be a 72 hour thread posted generally twice a month. This is random and it will say "check-in," it will also be stuck at the head of the subforum. If you miss a check-in, you will be removed. It is up to me if you are added back once you have been removed. Generally, I will allow for one addition back to the group. After that, all bets are off.

Terms of Sale:

I have the right to deny you entry.

I have the right to remove you at any moment in time.

Violation of my terms/subforum/HF rules will result in removal if fit.

All sales are final.

If you have a question, please message me. " Hey Hex."

Or, any of my lovely leaders.

| Phenomenal | Nobility | Realizm | Mr Mc Epic | zomgjulie |

Due to an unrelated issue with a previous member of my group, I'm the only one with the ability to add you to my group.

Well, hex isn't mentally retarded of a leader, so theres that

I assume it'll be hq, the userbar(If you only join groups for the userbar????) and that randoms cannot join

I already reserved a spot a long time ago, i'll just buy in a little later.

I remember when this was becoming a thing whilst I was in void. Good to see it becoming an official group. Shame I went inactive.

Good luck with this!

Houtarou - December 28, 2015, 5:57 pm

This group looks extremely interesting. May consider the buy-in but will probably wait until recruitment. Good luck with your group!

The badge looks good, so that's a definite point in the Black Lodge's favour. Also there seems to be a slight S&M vibe about the group, which can be attractive, and David Lynch is cool beyond reason.
