I tried this SE thing with my friend he bought me a Gift Card i redeem it and then we went to amazon live chat and tried to get the infos of the receiptant. If its some Indian Rep you can take infos easily lol the only way he would be able to get the information straight from amazon and legally would be to have a court order and even then police and shit would have to get involved which probably wouldnt happen.

so in a hort answer 99.999% not gonna happen
