Posting to edit this tomorrow, very kind and easy to talk to! Great communication so far, am going to do business with him when he wakes up tomorrow! -

Edit:

Bought the bronze package, went through very smoothly and quickly with no issues whatsoever, and he was busy with other accounts too and managed to move mine in there no problems or worries.

Very professional user, great service, he knows what he's doing. If you want your GTA V modded, I recommend IGVM's recovery service!

:)

Strongly recommend dealing with this user.

I have seen on other forums $5 packs where you can decide how much money and lvl you want. The most difference between expensive pack is unlocks etc.

If you are willing to drop your price hmu.

I think this a great service and actually looked into buying the gold until I saw it only comes with 20 million. For just $10 more I could buy from another seller for any amount of money, I think it would be a good idea for the gold package to be any amount of money from $1-$1000000000000

Yeah i was thinking of changing that to be honest, I guess i could give you 50 + 20 = 70M with that if your still interested.

Still interested but last time I got this done for a friend, I got him $175 million for $5

I see, but best i could possibly do is gold pack + 75M for $20

Keep in mind with the gold pack you get a ban safe, if you get ban we do a free recovery so that's an extra.

SIM-2524147 - December 22, 2015, 3:31 pm

I don't know, we'll see.

The thing is I've gone to place like thetechgame where they sell these accounts for $30-$40 but you get any amount of money, yet the reason I prefer yours is because gold offers a few more things than theirs such as the garage edit but that's about it.

Isn't money just entering numbers into a program?

Yeah it is, but sometimes i tend to give people like extra 10, 20m's cause i just feel like it, sometimes it could be 100's.

Ok, I'm going to leave the story of my experience with this seller:

Today I contacted them and got an instant reply, and he lead me through the steps.

I asked if I could get a Roosevelt in my garage, and this guy went above anything else he gave me a personally modded Roosevelt!!!

I highly vouch for this seller, best prices, fast service, super nice to their customers!

Edit: I forgot to say, I ordered the gold package and they messed up a small part of the recovery and offered another free recovery. If you look at my posts in this thread you'll see at first I doubted this service, but now that he has changed his prices it's the best, highly recommend gold package!
