Thread: [\[BTC Only\] Inveno's Middle Man Service - '09 Member - 3% Fees - FAST](#)

Inveno - December 20, 2015, 8:13 am

After seeing all of the recent scam reports, I thought that it would be necessary to have a middle man service of my own in an effort to cut down the threads in the deal disputes section and hopefully have more members successfully complete deals with no worries and in a fast time.

I will charge a 3% fee and I only MM BTC transactions, as I don't fancy accepting PayPal in fear of possible account limitation / chargebacks, which I can do nothing about.

I've been on HackForums for 6 years and feel attached to this community. I'm a member you can trust not to run away with money and someone you can rely on when you're worried about sending a BTC payment.

If you wish to contact me, please feel free to PM me and I will usually reply within a few minutes.

It was a false report that was set up by the user due to a grudge many years ago. I've tried to have it closed but it was around the time I left HF so I left it open and now people forgot about it. I believe if you ask Factor8 about it, he will vouch for me that it is false as he was someone I spoke to quite frequently at the time.
