Thread: Spotted some unchanged "rep fucks".

Saint - December 20, 2015, 10:56 am

Sorry for the weak title i did not know how to put this.

I felt like this was a better section to post this, rather than suggestions.

Recently all the "rep fuck/ed" are changed on the forum to "rep kill"

I spotted one that isn't changed yet.

It's when you add a deal dispute to the database.

EDIT: did some digging and found more.

Only found three mentions of it on "hackforums.net", I think Omniscient did a swell job of removing mentions of the word. If you don't count the wiki, there's not many at all.

Google this to do the same thing:

Code repfuck -"index -php", -"showthread", -"forumdisplay" site:hackforums.net

Well, since there's still a mention of the MRT in the Help Docs, probably the documents need an overall revision.

Good point there.

Levi - December 20, 2015, 6:20 pm

is there a punishment for still calling it a repfuck

Wires - December 20, 2015, 6:22 pm

Omniscient doesn't edit the Wiki. In fact, anyone can edit the Wiki along with the Writers (Wiki team). I'll go ahead and make the changes.

Minor changes that he may fix I guess, although I'm not exactly sure of why the name change...whatever.

Balding - December 20, 2015, 6:57 pm

Speaking about the wiki part - I edited those all to rep kill, but none of it was approved for some reason.
