Here's your answer above.

I'm surprise people can earn money on youtube doing what they like instead of copying/cloning/uploading other people videos to earn. Guess original videos still the best, no need afraid of takedown/etc. But I notice everyone doing a certain niche, eg OP youtube videos.

Can't I made different type of videos on one youtube account alone and earn??

Dripping - December 22, 2015, 2:40 am
