Thread: Made 2300 dollars in 7 hous ended up in a fight

Hans Zimmer - December 21, 2015, 6:40 pm

Let me make this story short. Im banned from my own bank for putting money into it because they think that im money laundering.. So i ask my friend everytime if he can take my money and put them on his account and after that send them to my account.. He always agree and i give him 60 dollars for doing it.

Yesterday i wanted to bet but my phone was dead and i asked my friend if i could borrow his phone to make some bets through his betting account and he was like yeah why not?

So i started with 100 dollars and lost to 50 dollars. Then i started to win and i ended up winning 2300 dollars and my friend got angry and told me that he should get something just because i used his account. I said well we are friends and we should help each other? He said if it wasnt for his acc i would never win this much money.. Then i was like fine im not goin to act like a jew ill give you 150 dollar as a thank. He went mad and told me he didnt want anything and sent me all my money and now his not talking to me. Was it wrong to give him only 150 dollars or should i give him more?

These was the bets

You gave him $150 for letting him borrow your phone. You are fine, your friend is just stingy.

ty the cyber bully - December 21, 2015, 6:42 pm

I barely read the full thread, you are not his friend. You are buying him. There is a huge difference.

if your friendship can get ruined by money, he is not a real friend. fuck him and get over it, you'll make it without him

Wizard - December 21, 2015, 6:43 pm

This is one of the weirdest scenarios that could've befallen on two friends.

redi - December 21, 2015, 6:44 pm

He got mad cause you made a lot of money thanks to him. 150$ was a good deal for him, if he's a cool guy he'll come up to you and apologize.

AAA+ - December 21, 2015, 6:44 pm

Spend some money with them... Money is money but friends are friends and a friendship is worth more thn money... Trust me

Im not buying him. I have bills to pay and i get paid by cash. These cash must get into my bank but i cant put them in since im banned for putting in money to my account. So i ask my closest friend to do it and as a thanks i give him 60 dollars for doin it and we do it every month.

How am i buying him?

He obviously didn't care about the money as stated in the OP. I feel like there are more problems here than what you're saying.

Anyday I would choose friendship over money.

The Host - December 21, 2015, 7:03 pm

I seen people like this all the time. OP just don't bother giving him anything at all. He will realise he was money hungry.

DuguWudi - December 21, 2015, 7:04 pm

Is it that hard just to open another bank account from another/different bank, OP?

Anyway, your friend wanted more money, that's all, abit on the greedy side.

eightz - December 21, 2015, 7:05 pm

$150 is a lot of money for not doing shit lol.

Carbohydrates - December 21, 2015, 7:17 pm

give him all the money, and be like "Im sorry BB"

Jk give him like $5 and be like "buy yourself some chocolates"

Green crack - December 21, 2015, 7:37 pm

Damn those irl gains though.

I would have betted against the pelicans too.

It doesnt work like that here.

He B TeMy - December 21, 2015, 7:53 pm

Honestly, you were pretty generous in your offer, your friend is clearly not your friend.
You just borrowed his fucking phone.

Unless you are already blacklisted in all your country banks. Couldn't you open a combo account with your family members eg parents or siblings and use that account?

Salty Hacking - December 21, 2015, 8:01 pm

Lmao! At this whole scenario but seriously. The Phone had nothing to do it with it. He was obviously jealous at your short Good luck Spree and Success. Might as well drop him now. No time for Stingy People like that. He Should be happy his Friend just made that much money. ?

Why would you even have to chose? If he was a real friend he would've just congratulated you and moved on.

Exactly. he's a being a little bitch because his friend (OP made $2.3k and he got $210.

I agree with this.

AMAVI - December 22, 2015, 12:58 am

Your friend is a jealous bitch that's what he is.. you don't even need to give him anything...

If he gets that mad over money he had nothing to do with.. Money > Friend is the way it works for him..

GrandpaSherman - December 22, 2015, 1:00 am

Fuck your friend, give him the dick.

Mr Kewl - December 22, 2015, 1:02 am

Just pay him $300 and forget about it. I guess 300 is decent amount Actually i ended up paying him 470 dollars.

We have forgot about the whole situation. He had to buy some christmas gift to his family etc..

I gave him 470USD because its exactly 4000kr. Didnt want our friendship to end just because of money. He is right without his account i wouldnt place these bets which means i would have 0 in my pocket atm.

Well, its your money, his account, and your winnings, and your decision in the end. All's well that end's well.?

Atleast, he didn't scammed you.

My case is abit different, my money in his account, profit also in his account, basically, he scammed my share of the profit and money and everything else. Pretty pathetic consider his so rich.?

He keep saying I will betray him one day, but I never did, when everything in his account, in the end, his the one who scammed me instead, and still thinks his right. Hope someday someone scam a big churn of money off him and see how he feels about that.
