Desirable Widsom - December 22, 2015, 5:06 am

I love them all, but which one is the best?

I vote one piece?

Duyere - December 22, 2015, 5:36 am

Why are you comparing One Punch Man to either of those two? Not nearly as popular. You should have added Bleach, Toriko, Hunter x Hunter, Katekyo Hitman Reborn Dragon Ball Z, or YuYu Hakusho up there.

But between Naruto and One Piece, I would have to go with One Piece. Naruto may have been animation but One Piece has less filler and overall a more promising storyline. The arcs may be ridiculously long but it has little-to-no filler overall.

CorrosiveBlueberry - December 22, 2015, 6:50 am

One Piece, however i would say none of the three, especially not one punch, your only picking overhyped over popular titles, IMO one punch man wasn't that great, compared to the thousands of other anime titles out there. Attempt to watch some of the other series out there, and most likely you'll like them better. I did love one piece, and i have watched and enjoyed all three of the titles you suggested however, i'm just saying there is alot more to anime that the top few popular ones, and in most cases your missing out.

Swip3r - December 22, 2015, 6:53 am

One punch man was better than One piece for sure, I mean in my opinion one piece was just way too cartoonish.

Naruto was my childhood so that'll always be badass.

Jackie Chun - December 22, 2015, 11:41 am

Naruto Shippuden has nearly 50%+ Fillers.

One Piece is definitely one of the best animes out there. There is a lot of friendship / moral values and resolve, lots of emotional and intense fighting scenes. And it's one of the few animes that is actually funny.

One Punch Man is a super serious series, definitely worth checking out.

naruto isnt only fillers (the last few episodes are fillers due the end battle with kaguya, in wich they might release a 3-6+ episode special to do the battle in 1 go, to prevent cliffhanger moments)

, it has much more story than 1-punch-man and what is so fun about a guy who can take out anybody with a single punch?

even one-piece has much more diversity in powers.

tofu - December 22, 2015, 10:02 pm

i doubt OPM will get any filler, or even if it lasts long even though its rly good.

Naruto is still way up there for me right next to DBZ, but if i had to pick, i'd say OPM for now.

Naruto has been on since early 2000s so of course it's going to have days more worth of story you idiot. And the series is complete fillers, even if the fillers are somewhat plot based they are still fillers. The anime is literally a 50% filler ratio probably the worst anime in terms of fillers to ever be created.

And one punch man is suppose to be a troll, it's a shot at some kind of Anime/mangas that make characters like Naruto for example be over powered turn into jesus christ etc...

Go watch some Hyouge Mono if you want some real story kiddo.

Warbeak - December 23, 2015, 2:11 pm

Is there a none option? I don't like any of them

Plus they are way too long, except for One Punch Man

Charles Carmichael - December 23, 2015, 2:23 pm

One Piece / Naruto are pretty close but probs would go with One Piece, haven't seen One punch though.

Jeff Winger - December 23, 2015, 2:26 pm

Why is One Punch Man on the list? It's nowhere as long as the other two.

I know right ?

One Piece = 1999-today

Naruto(anime) = 2000-today

OPM = 2015

Vip?r - December 24, 2015, 2:00 pm

I never got around to watching these long ass series, way too many episodes and fillers.

Pain - December 24, 2015, 2:01 pm

NARUTO all the way mang !!

amonian - December 25, 2015, 4:21 am

One pice is best . Naruto in later is bored .

Follow a filler guide for one piece like I did, I at first thought it would be a really long, and boring series, but now that I'm caught up, I love it.

Diamondo - December 27, 2015, 10:13 am

Of course that for me would be Fairy Tail ?

Also I love old One Piece and One Punch Man in the same way, but I freaking hate the new One Piece after that time skip. Everything is just for fan service and so ugly. And right after that is Naruto, but I hate its fillers. So I guess: One Piece = One Punch Man > Naruto, but I think I love all of them in the same way.

nobodygamezlikeme - December 29, 2015, 1:13 pm

My opinions

1. Naruto however the fillers are pssing mee off however I love the art of it all and the story that follows
2. One punch man reason for the second spot in stead of one piece is because one piece never got to me one punch man made mee laugh soooo much xd and can't wait for second season
3. One piece just isn't my cup of tea

Devixx - December 29, 2015, 1:16 pm

1] Naruto

2] One Punch Man

3]then One Piece, One Piece is good but it's kinda "ehh" lol.

Doni - December 30, 2015, 4:48 pm

One Piece is way better lol. One punch man wouldn't last more then 4 years if it tried to be a long watch anime. Naruto is good but the OP storyline is unique. I have seen plenty of Animes but Luffy is the most epic one, for me he is the best anime character that ever existed in anime industry.

RainbowHentAi - December 30, 2015, 5:01 pm

One Punch Man all the way

Well come on guys, if we are going to talk about Naruto, we should be talking about Naruto ignoring the fillers.

Naruto - fillers = fantastic

Twistedphantom - December 31, 2015, 9:47 am

I'd have to cast my vote for Naruto!

Professor Pantsu - January 1, 2016, 1:11 pm

Naruto is shit, One Piece is alright and OPM was pretty enjoyable.

skylarz - January 1, 2016, 10:57 pm

I honestly don't like naruto because they keep prolonging the fights. I'd have to say One Punch Man since I've only watched two episodes of One Piece.

DucksAreBoss - January 2, 2016, 6:12 am

I have read all of them and they are all really good, My favourite anime is Onepiece tho because I prefer Pirates more than Ninjas and Monsters.

Don't get me wrong all of the animes are really good and I like all of them.

Bay - January 2, 2016, 6:13 am

I havent watched one piece. I really fuck with naruto though. Since so many people prefer one piece ill have to watch that.

Denomination - January 2, 2016, 6:15 am

One piece all the fucking way, has way better lore.

macelord - January 2, 2016, 4:12 pm

one piece its the best but pretty close with naruto

Misty - January 2, 2016, 4:15 pm

You guys are forgetting Goku which is a default win. Probably why you didn't include him in the post.

Tomoko - January 2, 2016, 4:21 pm

So your comment doesn't really make much sense to me.

OT: I'd go with One Piece because I just love how each arc talks about different problems in the world and how it affects different kids of people in various ways. The story is also pretty cool, the best arc being either Enies Lobby or Skypaea.

One Punch man is very different than Naruto(I remember the 1 year I stopped watching it after the Pain saga with the horrible animation, and the fact that they put shitty fillers there. Even Bleach had better filler sagas.) and OP because OPM is basically mocking the traditional shonen, it's making fun of the cliché shonen anime.

pradippokemon1 - August 3, 2016, 9:42 pm

Anyone else loving the one year of fillers from Naruto??????
