I'm looking into getting 3p1c but before i take the risk in currency exchange, Is it worth it?

SavageAF - December 22, 2015, 9:15 am

'Risk in currency exchange' just use someone like that Neat dude who has loads of vouches

Take the risk? You are kidding? Go to the super legit exchangers not just random people trying to exchange.

worth what?

you aren't getting anything extra except that extra PM space and few other small things. It's all about giving site back.

oh and yes, that userbar

I'd suggest Neat, legit services!

It's hard trusting anyone these days.

Well Grievous has a service where you pay him $15 PayPal and he gifts you it, so I'd just do that. :)

Just use Neat, imo his charges are a bit high for my liking, but he is still pretty good and answers questions really fast.

Worth it due to the userbar and additional PM space. Also, if you want, I can make the exchange for ya. Good luck.

Well, since you're Ub3r their isn't much, things like 2FA you already have, but personally I love the UB (User-Bar) and you do get some flood limit restrictions basically removed which I can personally say is a really good thing and a huge inbox storage increase. I'd personally recommend purchasing it, but that's just me.

I'm tempted i'll see how much i've got ect..
