Thread: ATTENTION - Group Owners - Revert The UB Style!

Inveno - December 23, 2015, 7:16 am

All of these new userbars, I feel just don't look nice; they are too over complex and don't bring the same "wow" effect that the old one's did.

I mean, just look at the old ones, so beautiful...

So much better than the modern designs that groups are choosing to use now! They are just amazing and really have an aura to them.

TNF. - December 23, 2015, 7:18 am lannisters is my favorite userbar its so beautiful but yes i agree with you op the userbars are shit especially the black lodge it made me puke

Raptor. - December 23, 2015, 7:19 am

Unpopular opinion, but I really don't like the old style, they're all so boring. That said, I don't like many of the new UBs either, but that's just due to them looking shit (shoutout Titans bacon) more than anything else.

Llama™ - December 23, 2015, 7:19 am

I've seen the old L33t, 3pic and Ub3r UBs and would like those back. The modern ones really look good tho.

the old 3pic? thats pretty impressive

Effexion - December 23, 2015, 7:22 am

Oh, 143. That UB brings back so many memories. I agree about these UBs and the L337/Ub3r ones were better too. However, I think Omni wanted a change of direction to the whole feel of the site.

100% agreed. The issue isn't the UB style, it's that the owners pick trash UBs.

I really loved the 143 userbar.

ZuGgY - December 23, 2015, 7:48 am

I think The Brotherhood and Red Lions are the only ones with those types of userbars left.

True OGs.

Phreakdaine - December 23, 2015, 8:36 am

The only good thing about the old UBs is the nostalgia. There is way more freedom now to make them look awesome. The old styles in general don't look nearly as nice.

The Illusionist - December 23, 2015, 8:44 am

I feel like the new user bars are "fine" there is just 1 big problem.

The old user bars matched the old theme perfectly that's why they look so clean and why it was mandatory to use the old style.

The new user bars are fine (except a few of course) but they just don't match the current theme. The user bars just from themselves are fine but it seems that no effort is being put into making them match the current hack forums theme.

I wouldn't mind a new mandatory style that would fit the new theme.

?Hero - December 23, 2015, 8:47 am

Yep.

When Omni released the modern HF theme he offered all group owners a free user bar change (this normally costs a fee).

So everyone changed their UB's.

I didn't because I'm a fan of the old look and can't wait for the old theme to be back.

I want my string beans to be quarantined! I like a little fortress around my mashed potatoes so the meatloaf doesn't invade my mashed potatoes and cause mixing in my plate! With how I am about my food, you should be about your emotions.

You are letting your nostalgia precede your rationality. Advancement is not a bad thing.

I don't think the old UBs look nice, but they do have uniform. They match unlike polymath/pirates.

Well thanks for sharing your opinion but I doubt many owners care. Personally with Null I have been thinking of changing my userbar but due to having it as is for so long. I didn't want to remove the originality from it.

Mr. Robot - December 23, 2015, 10:17 am

The NULL userbar looks like a type of swedish car logo

Anyways - I wasn't around to see the really old UBs but have seen them floating around with threads like this popping up - I Think the next "generation" of groups should adjust with the upcoming theme update.

Most of the time the userbars are designed to either blend in with the background or to stand out from it - time will tell to how they look :)

Cryptic™ - December 23, 2015, 10:18 am

When the old theme comes back, it would be neat if each group could have 2 Userbars.

iKinky - December 23, 2015, 7:48 pm

well for 1 you cant anymore, 2 those arent that old, and 3 nnnnnnnnnah

Zexo - December 23, 2015, 8:27 pm

Empire and infamous were both my favorite back then but brotherhood always looked clean.

Aura - December 23, 2015, 8:44 pm

If only you guys knew how many times we talked about changing the userbar, yet it never happened. That userbar will die with The Brotherhood (one day).

Devixx - December 23, 2015, 8:47 pm

You used some ugly ass example userbars, 143 is the best there.

neightworks - December 24, 2015, 1:31 am

Wifigang was the purdiest

No, I like the design of them, and for the reasons I said.

I agree big time, that UB was dope!

1 that appears on the old theme, and the other for the modern themes.

Well that's how it used to be so I don't see why it would be an issue.

Princeton - December 24, 2015, 6:38 am

I agree the old one are more consistent and attractive.

Remix - December 24, 2015, 6:53 am

Things have already been put in motion, they'll be public within the next 2 weeks.

zSerity - December 24, 2015, 3:49 pm

Are you going to pay for all the UB changes

I'll gladly change if itbhe pays for the graphics and the rebrand fees.

Oliver Sykes - December 24, 2015, 6:23 pm

The worst new UBs are the black ones. They're just terrible. Like normal utter shit, then devoid of any hint of decent they could have.

+Haze - December 24, 2015, 6:25 pm

Okay op revert back to using them old computers with Megabytes of ram.

CocoaNut - December 26, 2015, 2:20 pm

Most people are l33t or ub3r though. But yhea, those look dope.

Nex+ - December 26, 2015, 2:22 pm

When you drop $7k+ on a group you can convert it to your own style you prefer.

-zERaIT - December 26, 2015, 3:59 pm

Nigga the fuck happend to you in prison??? Start shaving sheeps again

These ubs are class but times change m8

Raz Riverblade - December 26, 2015, 5:28 pm

I miss seeing the Empire UB

although the old UB was awesome, i think we need an obligated theme of sorts, doesn't have to be the old one

Kioshima - December 26, 2015, 5:43 pm

Empire's was nice. Old UBs...not so much.

Cameron - December 26, 2015, 11:44 pm

ATTENTION - Group Owners - You paid 8k, do whatever the fuck you wanna do!

Cyam - December 27, 2015, 1:49 am

ATTENTION - Group Owners - Do not do this.

VirtualFrost - December 31, 2015, 4:22 am

Fuck this brings back so many memories of the old userbars. I honestly prefer the new ones however, so much more modern and stylish.
