Thread: [\[Prism Member\] Shadow threatening me to change my rep UID=2623907](#)

Rednoob - December 23, 2015, 7:49 pm

[img]http://ichef.bbci.co.uk/childrens-responsive-ichef/r/640/1x/cbbc/hacker-time_onward_journey_image_bid.png[/img]

I recently negged the member 'Ryuko' for making a community alert on the member Anteduluvian. The reason I placed a negative reputation was justified as he made a claim on Antedilluvian without any proof and warned everyone to dwc with him. All I negged him was 'Show me proof'. Now instead, some reason Shadow intervenes and places a negative reputation on me with this response

// It has now been changed but it used to say:
"Don't neg for other users contact me to get this removed."

My reply to him:

I told him exactly why I negged him and I didn't neg for Antediluvian I negged because the community alert was invalid. Wish I hadn't because it brought me into this mess.

I contact him about the rep, to make it clear that I am not neg repping for others. He gets mad when I call him out so he starts trying to threaten me.

Quote:Fair enough. So i'll just inspect element your PM and make it say "hey want to sign up for my carding forum" then i'll screenshot it and put it in your rep and tell people to deal cautiously with you. Sound fair?

Now let me just put this out here.

There is no proof on the member 'Ryuko's' community alert

The chatbox was off-site where as that pm was on-site (staff can confirm).

There is no proof Antedeluvian repped Ryuko that nor is there proof that Antedeluvian inspect elemented that accusation. Plus it is one-sided and Antedeluvian cannot defend himself on the community alert.

Below is a PM Antediluvian had sent out after he received negs from members over the Community Alert.

<http://prntscr.com/9gaha5>
<http://prntscr.com/9gaiam>

as you can see its a one sided argument but difference is he can accuse and i can't defend there is a reason he closed the thread instantly when i called him out and said ill have my mate post on my behalf there is a reason he changed the neutral to a positive because hes scared. He's a lying shit over-reacting over me neutraling him. I never framed him as a carder and i will prove it when i'm home my mate will post a community alert on him that will clear up everything this kid blows a neutral out of proportion i never neutralled him that rofl my neutral has never changed on him till now since i can't pm him'

On to the main point

I am to believe that there is some sort of beef between Shadow and Antedeluvian, and thus he's going to great lengths to shun him.

<https://i.imgur.com/sBKGBff.png> << <https://i.imgur.com/KoneR45.png> >>

Antedilluvian and Shadow have exchanged neutrals and negs against each-other.

Apparently one of them negged/neutralled and the other pm'd to have it removed both are accusing of asking to solve the rep so not much can be done about that but that is the source of the hate it seems.

People care about rep a lot I mean I can't say I don't but it's just the fact that people go so far over it; it's just ridiculous. You'll know what I mean in a moment.

PMs:

Spoiler (Click to View)

"At least I'm not some L33t's bitch."

It's ironic that he said that, as HE is the one who came to aid some L33T and intervene in a matter that did not concern him.

Are you mad that you can't neg Antedeluvian twice, you have to neg people who support him? Why are you stooping so low?

But that's none of my business.

After I asked him to show where I contradicted myself he doesn't deliver, instead he once again threatens to frame me as a carder:

Quote: Okay so how about I put this in your rep <https://i.imgur.com/50aBBEG.png>
It's ironic as I do not sell products on HF, aside from a couple of skins/accounts.
However, I do run an exchange thread strictly for BTC/PP (self plug), didn't know these were "Cheap carded products"

I'm just shocked. The man went so far that he hopped on skype setup a fake conversation and make it look like I admitted to carding.
D E A D A S S.

Why is he calling me a bitch, yet going through great lengths to intimidate and threaten me? ON BEHALF OF SOMEONE ELSE.

Be weary folks, I don't want you getting framed by this guy.

EDIT:

He's going through even greater lengths, and actually inspect elemented a picture and left it on his rep, LOL.

This was all onsite, being threatened to change my rep via PM.

ALSO

Rep Coercion: Using intimidation, threats, or blackmail to get reps added or removed.

I never was actually GOING to put that in your rep, else I would have done it a while ago. It was merely to prove a point. If you did not have those PMs from me, then what proof would YOU have that I modified that skype convo? Exactly, none! So in this case, the member ryuko doesn't have any proof of antedeluvian editing the chat message, yet antedeluvian DOES have a reputation of providing false reps, that's a given.

And I love the way you only screenshotted SOME of the PM logs.

Whole PM in its entirety

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Dude, look at the rep you gave him, LOL. You clearly falsely accused him of carding and even had the gall to put it in his rep.

Also,

"If you did not have those PMs from me, then what proof would YOU have that I modified that skype convo?"

That is fine, another community alert would have been put up different from this one, and I would take action accordingly.

Antediluvian - December 27, 2015, 5:31 pm

Back from my vacation.

I have no idea what feud shadow had with me nor do i even know who he really is we had negs/neutrals on each other and i had him on my ignore list so he couldnt solve rep with me and I guess he was mad so he had a vengence and went crazy.

the user clearly broke the rules and if someone wants to pm omni on my behalf they have my permission to do so. He changed the fake false rep on me so i have no feud/reason to get him repfucked or closed.

I hope the user Rednoob keeps this thread open as a valuable lesson that some members really do care about rep to a certain extent.

Shadow it's over end it. Why you replied on this thread and tried to defend yourself is beyond me you acknowledge what you have done by doing so.

//end

edit: lol y he mad tho

Hey you backseat minimod! If you maybe took the time to read this thread then maybe you would understand the reason he harrassed rednoob is because I had shadow on the ignore list.

Another thing is that rednoob put shadow on the ignore list and in retaliation he put the false rep on me.

despite that the community alert was open

(Dec 27, 2015 06:41 PM)- Sam - Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I'm a fool? Do you even know what the community alert tag is used for, clearly not. This thread consist of two members having a little tantrum after giving each other a negative reputation. If OP is being harassed or threatened this is a job for an Admin, not for a fucking public discussion.

Instead of trying to make me look bad how about you buy some glasses and tell your friend to take responsibility.

understand that you are not a mod and it makes you mad by the minute its okay give me a hug.

ot: You are a fool yes, and yep I know what a community alert tag is used for; it is used to warn the members of a user who might harm other members? He is breaking help-docs / site policies he is also manipulative as you can see and members should take caution of. Staff do not get involved in help-docs it says so. User was already added to ignore list but still caused an issue as shown in the OP. I do not need glasses 20/20 vision but i bet your urkel looking ass speakin from experience huh. Stop this unnecessary flaming you did not need to post here from the start. I'll pm a staff member to remove these posts. Grow up. Literally I get warnings for responding to people trying to flame its funny really.

Nex+ - December 27, 2015, 6:22 pm

I should -3 you for making this pointless ass thread

Rednoob - December 27, 2015, 6:25 pm

(Dec 27, 2015 06:53 PM)- Sam - Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) You mean you receive warnings because you are an unintelligent little prick.

"it is used to warn the members of a user who might harm other members?" Lmao! So calling someone a 'bitch' and 'pussy' is going to put someones life jeopardy which is worthy of a community alert?

I rest my case, I bet you are the kind of kid who runs to the teacher after class because you lent out a pencil and you never got it back. ?

Sorry to intrude on your fight with Antedeluvian, but there is an ignore feature that you can use so you need not reply to others.

That being said, I've provided ample evidence via PM pics that he was threatening me to change my rep by saying he would put up modified images trying to salestrash me. I believe a community alert was a just move because his hostile behavior towards me over a minute thing, is a little bit scary.

Take my words as a grain of salt, or live by them, it doesn't matter.
But information doesn't hurt.

Ryuko - December 27, 2015, 6:26 pm

First off Rednoob, My proof was on-site and offsite, if you actually take your time to read it you would of actually saw it, him complaining to staff about a warning. And don't even give the excuse of that, you were basically defending your friend and denying the evidence, what happened with me and Antediluvian is technically none of your business, it would be nice if you just stay out of something you never gotten into in the first place.

Proof was on-site? Proof? Give me proof you and your lies.

Below is a PM Antediluvian had sent out after he received negs from members over the Community Alert.

Hey weaboo i'm not postbanned anymore so you wanna brawl now lets brawl. The only guy that defended you has ruined his name and cannot be trusted so what can you do?

Oh btw, unlike an idiot I have confirmation and proof of shadows rep

So let me ask, who are you trying to defend?

Please show on-site proof

oh btw you admitted to off-site proof lmao nice job plus its false anyways so what u gon do

where is the onsite proof kid

i was complaining about staff post banning me yes that is true and then you butted it and then i neutraled you. After that you went salt and made rumors and lied. Where are you getting at?

You are wrong about it not being his business Shadow your buttbuddy decided to come in and defend you only because he had beef with me.

He didn't defend you because he believed in you he defended you because you were on the opposing side of me. And there is on-site proof of that, he admitted to doing all this because of the beef w/ me.

Don't tell someone to stay out when you make things their business people step in because people cross the line. You fucking fraud what are you going to do now huh? Now that i'm not post banned. All you had to do was edit the thread and title and end it but you wanna fuck around ruin my name and lie? Fine. Try not to get smoked.

Sam is a perfect example of how 'HQ' members act just look at the rep he placed on me.

archive: <http://pastebin.com/raw/4SQa0rbi>

It's because the leader "Nex+" acknowledges what his member did wrong another leader kicks him three hours later he gets added back.

Bad start for the group. If you don't know what you are talking about just don't say it sam. While you are here and love going off topic can you explain this neg you placed on me?

Everything you say is a lie according simply to this rep. How am I shady, why wouldn't anyone do transactions with me.

I've done $400 in btc deals in my first week of joining this forum. If you want I can bring some boys in this thread that can vouch for my lowkey deals.

+ I fucking hate scammers as shown here

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5053309> I'm not taking sides with anyone I don't know why Shadow did what he did nor do I know why and as I said I honestly don't care about this situation going on. You really need to calm down this is the reason why you were post banned for flaming. And I had enough proof because the messages you sent on HF to staff was on-site the chatbox is just something offsite that you could of just tampered with and you have.

The intent was to exercise caution towards the member as he was going threatening me and going through great lengths to get me to change my rep.

As you can see, we started off with simple PMs until it escalated. Hence, this thread.

Thanks for taking the time to read though.
